IN THE BEE TO-DAY.

WEATHER.

Indications are for cloudy weather with a disagreeable drizzle. Northwesterly winds.

Observer Hagen, of the Toledo weather office, has the following to say of the conditions:

The storm area reported yesterday over Lake Superior has dissipated, and its influence has extended south as far as Cincinnati. Its greatest influence this morning was at Toledo, but not sufficient to give us more than a bare drizzle. The highest temperature here yesterday was 44 degrees, the lowest this morning 34 degrees.

The local forecast is cloudy, possibly a light and short drizzle, clearing early Friday morning, warmer to-day, cool wave Friday night, westerly to northwesterly winds. A storm area now in the northwest will probably give us rain Sunday night or Monday.

Forecast for Western New York and Ohio—Slightly warmer; threatening weather, with rain or snow, attending a probable development of storm center in the Ohio valley; rain or snow, followed by clearing weather, is probable Friday.

For Illinois and Indiana—Slightly cooler and generally fair; northerly winds; fair weather is probable Friday.

For Michigan and Wisconsin—Slightly cooler; generally fair weather; increasing cloudiness Friday, and probably rain or snow Friday night.

Major McKinley Elected by a Campaign of Cash.

The News From Iowa Grows Better with Age.

Late Election Returns From All Over the Broad Land that Will Prove Interesting to Readers of the Bee.

Columbus, Nov. 5.—(Special)—The campaign, looked back at from the standpoint of history, will stand as one of the most remarkable ever conducted in the state. If the democrats of the state and nation knew of the tremendous odds against which Gov. Campbell battled they would be surprised that McKinley's majority did not reach 50,000 instead of being a little over 15,000. Gov. Campbell made the contest single-handed.

He had no support from beyond the borders of Ohio and right here at home many of the most prominent democrats contributed neither time nor money.

In certain quarters they whipped out knives and did all they could to down him.

The state committee had no funds with which to carry on the campaign, while at the republican headquarters across the way money drawn from the protected monopolists from all over the country flowed like water.

To-day the democratic committee was confronted with a deficiency. There was not enough money to pay the clerical force.

Col. Neal telegraphed for aid to various places, but it was not forthcoming. Rather than have the committee's accounts involved he went down in his own pocket to liquidate the debts contracted in the cause of the democracy of Ohio.

The clerical force knew the state of affairs and many of them were loth to accept his personal check for the amounts due them, but he insisted upon settling up all obligations rather than have the debt go over to the next committee.

Col. Neal declared that McKinley's election cannot be considered a victory for protection. "It is a money victory," said he. "We had no funds; they had an unlimited supply. We had a portion of the democratic party in the state against us and the opposition of some of the party in other states to contend with. The result is not a triumph for protection; it is a triumph of cash."

In an interview Gov. Campbell was emphatic in his declaration that Major McKinley's election was not a victory for protection. In stating the causes which contributed to his defeat, the governor said:

"In the first place, while our state committee was probably the best the democrats ever had and made a gallant fight, it was poverty stricken. We had no money to meet the actual necessary expenses of the campaign. It was impossible for us to send men home to vote. College students who applied to the committee for transportation to their homes that they might be enabled to vote were turned away.

"Men who would have gone home to Cincinnati to cast their votes could not be assisted. We could not get out the votes in many sections, as we had no money to procure conveyances. I mention these things simply to illustrate the condition under which the committee labored.

"With this state of affairs existing we were opposed by an organization having an unlimited supply of funds. Then, too, thousands of republicans who would have voted with us because of the tariff question did not wish to commit themselves to the free and unlimited coinage of silver. There you have the principal causes of the election of Major McKinley."

The governor received many telegrams of condolence to-day from all parts of the country. Among them are the following:

"Pittsburg, Nov. 4.—To Hon. James E. Campbell: Accept our heartfelt sympathy, but we earnestly hope this is not your last effort. The democracy of the nation, although successful otherwise, feel your defeat sorely. We heartily congratulate you for the noble fight you have waged for democratic principles and earnestly hope to be present at your inauguration to the highest office in the nation.

RANDALL CLUB."

Gov. Campbell also received telegrams of sympathy in his defeat from ex-President Cleveland and Gov. Boies of Iowa.

Stryker's Vote.

Stryker, O., Nov. 5.—(Special)—Stryker, including Springfield township, gave McKinley five plurality. The prohibition and people's party polled 80 votes.

Fulton Official.

Wauseon, Nov. 5—(Special)—McKinley, 2,665; Campbell, 1,720; Rorick, 2,591; McConica, 2,503; Canary, 1,611; Ryan, 1,614.

Seneca County's Vote.

Tiffin, O., Nov. 5.—(Special)—The result of the election in Seneca county comes in the nature of a surprise and a disappointment. The republicans elect their auditor by a small margin, and the normal democratic majority in the county has been reduced from one thousand one hundred to about eight hundred. The cause can be ascribed to the fact that many democrats remained at home and about three hundred went over to the people's party.

These defections were felt chiefly in two or three townships; elsewhere comparative gains were made. Factional differences hampered the campaign, but henceforth these will have vanished and old Seneca will present an unbroken front.

Wyandot County.

Upper Sandusky, Nov. 5.—(Special)—Campbell's majority over McKinley in Wyandot county is 790. The entire democratic ticket elected and W. C. Gear for state senator carries the district by over 3,000.

Norris for common pleas judge gets an overwhelming majority. People's party polled but 82 votes.

Crushed the Alliance.

Topeka, Ks., Nov. 5.—The power of the farmer in Kansas politics is broken—for the time at least. The alliance met a crushing defeat at the polls. The general result is best indicated by the returns from the ten judicial districts.

In only one was the alliance candidate successful—the district comprising the counties of Kingman, Pratt and Kiowa, where the farmers elected William Bashore.

That was formerly the stronghold of the Union Laborites who joined the farmers when the latter went into politics. Besides there were two republican candidates in the field there which divided the republican strength.

In the nine districts remaining seven of the successful candidates are republicans and two are democrats. In two of the districts the republicans and democrats combined against the alliance.

A special to the Star (independent) from Topeka says: Democrats and republicans alike profess to believe that the people's party in this state is out of power to stay out, and that the fight next year will be on the old lines. There is something touching in the greeting of the old party politicians who have fought each other for years. A crushing alliance defeat is a common cause for joy.

Iowa Solidly Democratic.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 5.—Returns coming in to-day show almost uniform gains for Boies. From all the counties heard from the indications are that he will have 8,000 to 10,000 majority in the state. The balance of the democratic state ticket is probably elected by a majority of 3,000 to 4,000.

The senate is undoubtedly democratic by two majority, unless the democrats should lose in districts somewhere not yet reported.

In the house the republicans will probably have four majority, as they have gained a member each in the counties of Audubon, Decatur and Boone.

The contest just closed was the sharpest and most active ever held in the state. The total vote is 425,000, a larger one than has ever been seen before.

The "Americans" Got There.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Complete returns received from every precinct in Cook county show that the entire republican ticket was elected. Not a man seems to be missed.

The republican candidates for county commissioners in the city district appear to have received majorities varying from 7,000 to 14,000. Mr. Eckhart, republican candidate for drainage trustee, received 5,000 more votes than any other candidate for that office. The only democrat elected was Lyman F. Cooley, drainage trustee, who comes in as the minority representative.

It is one of the most sweeping republican victories ever known in Cook county, and is largely due to continued dissensions in the democratic ranks.

A significant feature of the election is that nearly every man indorsed by the American or "Know Nothing" associations appears to have been elected.

Legislature Close.

New York, Nov. 5.—The returns for New York state show 15 democrats elected to the senate and 17 republicans. There is some doubt about two republicans and one democrat. In the assembly there is a tie at 64. On these figures the republicans have two majority on joint ballot of the legislature.

Detroit.

Detroit, Nov. 5.—The republicans made a clean sweep here, made possible by the fact that the democrats had two tickets in the field.

What Fassett Says.

Elmira, N. Y., Nov. 5.—In the course of an interview Mr. Fassett was asked if Warner Miller knifed him. He replied: "Yes, we think he did—that is, we believe his friends did. Still I have received a good vote in many of his districts."

Latest From Iowa.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—The Tribune's Des Moines correspondent gives the following summary of the composition of the Iowa legislature: Republicans in house 54; democratic members of house 44. People's party 1. In doubt 1.

Republican members senate, 24; democratic members senate, 25. Union labor 1. Republican majority in house, 8. Opposition majority in senate, 1. Republican majority on joint ballot, 7.

It is possible that later returns may reduce the republican majority in the house to four, but it is not believed it will go lower than that. Boies plurality is given as 7,026.

ARE WATCHING MR. EGAN.

Believed to be Still Plotting in Chili,

The Junta Thinks that Close Friends of Balmaceda Are Concealed in the Minister's House.

London, Nov. 5.—The Chilian question was made more interesting to-day by a telegram from Valparaiso stating that the government had doubled the number of watchers in the vicinity of Minister Egan's residence at Santiago.

The Chilians appear to be on the lookout for some prominent Balmacedist, who is suspected of being in Egan's house, with the intention of slipping away unobserved.

The Chilian minister at Paris is in constant communication with his government, and it reported that Chili will soon place a large order for rifles with a French arms factory.

TORPEDO WORKS BURNED.

Fostoria, O., Nov. 5.—(Special)—The torpedo works of W. C. Beckwith were again destroyed by fire yesterday—the second time in three years. The whole plant was destroyed, with books, and 500 gross of torpedoes valued at $1,000, besides other valuable stock. The insurance is $2,000, which does not cover loss. The company will rebuild at once.

READY FOR REVOLUTION.

Brazil Again in a State of Turmoil.

Fears that Fonseca Will Declare Himself Dictator.

Martial Law Proclaimed, Congress Dissolved and the Impeachment Measure Vetoed by the President.

New York, Nov. 5.—A special to the Herald from Rio Janeiro says that matters look dark in that country and Brazil may be on the brink of another revolution.

The fight between President Fonseca and congress has reached a culmination. For quite a time their differences were over financial matters. The president used the veto freely on matters pertaining to this important subject. Recently an attempt has been made to curb the power of the chief executive. The fact that Fonseca was a military man has led many to fear that he might proclaim himself dictator.

To prevent any such contingency congress passed a law fixing the process of impeachment of the president. Fonseca vetoed the measure. His veto was considered in a heated session and resulted in the carrying of a motion to override the veto.

Fonseca thereupon became very much excited and dissolved congress.

His decree to that effect was made public Tuesday. Martial law has been proclaimed in Rio and the other states forming the confederacy. The feeling here is one of great fear of what may follow. All dispatches are subjected to censorship.

OFF FOR WASHINGTON.

Fostoria, O., Nov. 5.—(Special)—Secretary and Mrs. Foster left yesterday for their home in Washington which their daughter, Miss Anna, has been preparing for her mother's coming.

A party of nine, Willis and John Brandeberry, Simon Hartley, Wm. Johnston, Andrew Wiseman, Joseph Chilcote and the Stoner brothers left yesterday for a deer hunt at Cheboygan, Mich.

IT WAS A BAD COMBINATION.

Boston, Nov. 5.—The assignees of the firm of Irving A. Evans & Co. as yet have not secured a majority of the creditors upon the assignment papers. The difficulty seems to be the unwillingness of the creditors to have their names made public. It is believed, however, that a majority will ultimately sign.

HEAVY WEATHER.

London, Nov. 5.—The City of New York, which has arrived at Queenstown from New York, experienced heavy weather during which one of the ship's cooks was injured.

THE SITUATION ALARMING.

China is in No Condition for Peace.

A Spirit of Unrest Prevails and the Government Continues to Make War Preparations

San Francisco, Nov. 5.—The Hankow correspondence of the Hong Kong Press received yesterday says: Those who imagine that China is going to back down before a mere display of force are mistaken. No outbreak has occurred yet, but it is now quite clear the people of Wuchang were on the eve of one when the consul held an interview with the viceroy.

Wuchang residents do not feel secure yet. Ladies have not returned to the city, while gentlemen go armed. Recently several fire balls were thrown into the buildings of the powder magazine at Wuchang, and this was made a pretext for distributing the ammunition among the troops throughout the city on the walls.

A hundred war junkets have been ordered built in haste for service on inland waters. They are no doubt intended to coerce the Hunanese. We had a huge fire at Hankow when 300 houses were burned and 10 times as many people were left homeless with considerable loss of life through women and children being trampled down.

HAVE LEFT CHILI.

World's Fair Promoters Returning North.

The Present Feeling in that Country Makes the Work of the Boomers Amount to Nothing.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—The world's fair agents have been ordered by the director general of the fair to leave Chili forthwith. They have taken their departure toward the north. They had been at work in the smaller coast cities and done some execution in the way of promoting the interests of the fair in Valparaiso.

The reason for the order is that it is feared that it will be impolitic at this time to urge anything American. The world's fair party is trying to get the congressional party to approve of the $100,000 appropriated by the Balmaceda government. The commissioner of the fair will return as soon as the Chilian trouble is adjusted.

CAPT. YATES DEAD.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The navy department received a dispatch announcing the death of Capt. Arthur R. Yates, commandant of the Portsmouth, N. H., navy yard, from heart disease at that yard yesterday. Capt. Yates was appointed from New York and has seen 38 years' service, 16 of which were spent at sea.

TO ASSASSINATE CANTO.

A Murderous Plot Thwarted Just in Time.

Balmadeda's Followers Are Still Scheming—The Itata Cheered on Her Arrival.

New York, Nov. 5.—The Herald's Valparaiso dispatches state that a plot has been discovered to assassinate Col. Canto, the leader of the junta forces during the recent rebellion.

It is stated that the discovery was very timely. The news has caused much excitement. The plot was unearthed among adherents of the late president.

The Itata arrived at Valparaiso yesterday. Her officers and crew were most heartily received by the populace.

MAGNIFICENT SPECTACLE.

Golden Jubilee of the Ordination of Mgr. Cantwell.

Philadelphia, Nov. 5.—One of the most magnificent spectacles seen in the religious world of this city for sometime was the celebration yesterday of the golden jubilee of the ordination of the Right Rev. Monsignor Cantwell, vicar general of the Roman Catholic diocese of Philadelphia and rector of St. Philip de Neris church.

Father Cantwell is 80 years old, and for fifty years has ministered to the spiritual wants of the parish. The scene in and around the church was a most inspiring one. The crowd blocked the street, the sacred edifice was jammed, and over a hundred priests and dignataries of the church were present.

Monsignor Cantwell was born in Waterford, Ireland, in 1813.

PREPARING FOR WAR.

Active Work in all the Government Navy Yards.

New York, Nov. 5.—Secretary Tracy was at the navy yard in Brooklyn on election day conferring with Commandant Erben. Secretary Tracy when questioned, said he anticipated no serious hostilities in regard to the Chilian affair. He, nevertheless, intends to be on the safe side and has ordered that every ship at the yard shall be gotten ready for sea. Commandants of other yards are under similar orders.

A SHIP STRANDED.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 5.—The British ship Strathblane, from Honolulu, stranded 25 miles north of Astoria yesterday and is a total wreck. The captain and five others of the 31 persons aboard were drowned.

WM. KELYNACK DEAD.

London, Nov. 5.—Rev. Wm. Kelynack, ex-president of the Australian Wesleyan conference, is dead.

TAKE NOTICE, SHERMAN,

Foraker is After Your Seat in the Senate.

Everything He Said Before Election Was for Effect,

Now He is Going to Work and Cut You Up in Quarters and Distribute to the Four Winds of Heaven.

Cincinnati, Nov. 5.—Gov. Foraker has been interviewed by a United Press reporter on his position in regard to the United States senatorship. Said he: "I stand just where I have stood from the beginning. I don't intend to run after, or away from the senatorship."

"You seem to be advised of agreeable news, governor."

"Yes, I am getting a great deal of information this morning as to the senatorial preference of members-elect of the legislature. I don't care to give names. They will come from others with more propriety than from me, but my advices assure me of the support of more than 60 members of the general assembly.'

"Do you think McKinley will be in the race for the senate?"

"No, I am sure he will not be."

"You certainly think Foster will be a candidate?"

"No, I don't think Foster will be a candidate. Had matters gone differently he might have been, but he is agreeably situated, politically, and I don't think he will want anything more at this time."

Gov. Foraker thinks McKinley will be well thought of as a candidate for the presidency in 1892.

AN IMPORTANT ARREST.

The Head of a Gang of Counterfeiters in Trouble.

He Was Making Arrangements to Flood the United States with Bogus Bonds.

New Orleans, Nov. 5.—Sessie Avegno, from Costa Rica, was arrested just in time to prevent a big bond fraud. Avegno claims to be a representative of the republic of Honduras. He visited several engravers, and impressed them with the idea that he had been sent here by the Honduras government.

He contracted with one of them to engrave plates to fit the bonds of the republic and with another to make a signature of President Bogran.

The Costa Rican consul became suspicious of Avegno and caused an examination of his effects which revealed the fact that he was the head of a gang of Central American counterfeiters who were intending to flood the American and European market with fraudulent bonds.

CONGRATULATING McDERMOTT.

Dublin, Nov. 5.—Mr. McDermott is receiving many congratulations upon his chastisement of Healy. The latter has sought police protection against the constant ringing of his bell by persons claiming to be solicitous about his condition.

FROM PILLAR TO POST.

Mrs. Harrison's Father on Another Journey.

The Western Relatives Tired of Him and Have Sent Him Back to the White House.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—J. W. Scott, President Harrison's father-in-law, was in Chicago yesterday on his way back to Washington from Port Townsend, Wash., where it will be remembered he went last summer to live with his son.

He spent the day with Dr. Tuttle and family at 1000 West Adams street. Mr. Scott and the Tuttles are old friends. As to the reported trouble with his daughter he would say nothing more than that he had received an invitation to return to Washington and occupy the room known as "Father Dant's room," as long as President Harrison remains in office.

He says he will not live in Port Townsend, for he loves the capital because it is the center of information.

NATIONAL FEDERATION.

Dublin, Nov. 5.—The Irish National federation is in session at Waterford. Great excitement prevails in the town, and noisy and turbulent mobs are thronging its streets. Several persons have been clubbed by the police, who are determined to repress any attempt at violence.

CAN EGAN EXPLAIN

The Baltimore Charged with Being a Spy.

Evidence that Will Have Great Weight.

Other Foreign Nations to Tell the Story.

Capt. Schley Certainly Acted Very Strangely.

He Used His Big War Ship to Watch the Insurgents and Hurried Away with the News of Their Movements to Balmaceda.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 5.—The officers of the warship Champion, which arrived Tuesday evening, say: Everybody that knows anything about the subject, and we saw the whole manoeuvre, is very bitter against the United States steamer Baltimore for her action in making herself a spy on the congressionalists.

They landed at Quinteros from their ships and marched up to Concon. At the time we were lyinag alongside the Baltimore at Valparaiso. The American steamed around the point to Quinteros, and watched the whole of the landing of the troops and then deliberately turned back and made for the government wharf in Valparaiso.

She was at once boarded by the government officials. That evening the papers came out with the alarming headline, stating that owing to the kindness of the American officers the government was in possession of the fact that the revolutionists were marching on Concon.

It was an unaccountable act, and coming, as it did, from the flagship of a nation priding itself on justice and fair dealing, it was simply astounding.

The officers of the Champion furnish an interesting account of the war, they having been spectators of most of it. Exhaustive reports of the battle, naval engagements and everything which might furnish a lesson in modern warfare, have been prepared and forwarded to the British authorities.

The Champion's officers were banqueted by the congressional leaders before leaving as a mark of their appreciation of their fair conduct during the conflict.

According to Capt. Scott, of the steamer West Indian, a band of organized garotters are responsible for the murder of the Americans at Valparaiso. He says the Chilians are prepared to fight rather than accept the responsibility of the affair.

The officers of the Champion say that 11,000 men were killed at the battle of Placilla, after which the victorious troops received a glorious and enthusiastic welcome by the inhabitants of Santiago.

HE HUNG IT ON A NAIL.

Wauseon, Nov. 5.—An amusing instance occurred at the polls here. A Pole asked for his ticket and stepped into a booth. In a moment he came out and entered another and finally another.

When he came out he had no ticket. Upon being asked where his ticket was he replied: "I look all over and no can find a hole to put in ticket, so I put him on a nail."

Sure enough, in the last booth he had left the ticket on a nail, and it was a republican ticket.

NEW JERSEY LEGISLATURE.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 5.—Corrected returns show the election of Strahan, ind.-dem., in the First, Honce, dem., in the Second, and Parker, rep., in the Third district of Monmouth county; Lowe, rep., in the First, and White, dem., in the Second district of Burlington county; James Strimple, dem., in Salem county. This makes the house stand 42 democrats, 18 republicans. The senate stands 16 democrats, five republicans.

SHUTTING OFF BISMARCK.

The Young Emperor Takes Vigorous Action.

The Ex-Chancellor Warned Not to Reveal Certain Documents Under Pain of Prosecution.

Berlin, Nov. 5.—It is reported that the kaiser has caused Bismarck to be notified that any attempt to reveal facts or documents connected with affairs of state during his ministry will be followed by prompt and earnest prosecution.

This warning has been given in view of the current statements that Bismarck intends in the reichstag to present evidence as to the causes of his dismissal from the chancellorship.

Bismarck is said to have received the admonition with very ill grace. All his valuable papers, save those of strictly a family nature, are in London. He retains copies of some of them, however, and it is these copies he proposes to use in the reichstag.

SLAVE TRADE.

Sydney, Nov. 5.—The slave trade between Queensland and several of the Polynesian groups has been increasing during the present year, and it is said that the new Australian squadron, which recently arrived in those waters, will be partly utilized to put down the trade in question. The planters of Queensland claim that Polynesian labor is a necessity in that region, white labor being scarce and the native blacks utterly worthless.

LAVACK WON THE FIGHT.

Seville Knocked Out in Three Rounds.

The Slayer of Arthur Majesty Enters the Prize Ring Again and Is Defeated.

Columbus, O., Nov. 5.—(Special)—John Lavack knocked out Seville in three rounds last night in a four-round "glove" contest in this city. Lavack was not in training and his victory over Seville is all the more great. Lavack is the man who defeated Kelly in Toledo some months ago.

The Charges of Heresy Were Not Sustained.

Some Opposition Shown and the Controversy May Be Taken Before the New York Synod.

New York, Nov. 5.—The New York presbytery took up the trial of Prof. Charles A. Briggs on the charge of heresy, yesterday, based upon the language used by him in his inaugural address in Union Theological seminary. Dr. John C. Bliss presided as moderator and called the presbytery to order. There was a full attendance.

One of the charges against Dr. Briggs is that he disputes the inerrancy of the Bible.

The professor read a paper objecting to the form of the charges preferred, stating that the report of the committee which formulated the indictment against him charges offenses which are not now proposed for trial. The committee charges him with uttering doctrinal teachings respecting the miracles, original condition of man, etc., without attempting to prove the charge. This, Dr. Briggs said, did him a great injustice and was apt to prejudice the decision of the members. He said if he had caused widespread anxiety in the church, he was sorry, but in his conscience he felt no guilt as regards disturbing the peace and harmony of the church. He further added that the charges were general and obscure and irregular in form throughout. There is nothing in the specifications that can be tested by the defendant. He admitted the excerpts from his address made on the occasion of his inauguration as professor of biblical theology in Union Theological seminary. the facts upon which to sustain the charges are missing in the indictment. As, for instance, there was nothing to deny that the "Bible, as a book, is paper, print, and binding, nothing more. It is entitled to reverent handling because it contains the divine word of redemption for man and not for any other reason whatever." He said also that the indictment contained insinuations wholly unwarranted. He denied that he ever taught doctrines conflicting with the holy scriptures as the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

The question was raised whether the committee of presbytery which formulated the indictment was an original party to the action. The moderator ruled that it was.

Dr. Henry Vandyke, one of Dr. Briggs' supporters, entered a protest based on precedent, which was entered on the records, and will go up to the synod.

The moderator held that the committee of prosecution represented the Presbyterian church in the United States, and was the original party. This decision was appealed from the chair, and sustained by a vote of 67 to 64.

Dr. John J. Stevenson, of the prosecuting committee, said that the committee would in due time reply to Dr. Briggs' answer. He maintained that the charges and specifications are in perfectly proper form. Dr. Vandyke moved to dismiss the case against Dr. Briggs and dismiss the committee. The motion was received with laughter.

For the purpose of making a formal record, Rev. J. Ford Sutton moved an amendment adding the words to Dr. Van Dyke's motion that the charges be dismissed "in consideration of Dr. Briggs' answer."

Dr. Thomas L. Hastings, president of the seminary, also argued in favor of dismissing the charges, his references to the prosecution being somewhat caustic "It was supposed," he said, "that the committee was under the control of the presbytery, but it seemed that the presbytery was under the control of the committee." Mr. Robinson arose to a point of order at this decaraton and contended that Dr. Hastings was not speaking on the subject under consideration by the presbytery and averred that the committee was properly acting for the presbytery, whereupon Dr. Hastings declared that the committee's authority had been used as an argument against the motion of dismissal, and continuing, stated that the charges should be dismssed for the sake of the church.

A discussion followed, during which this extract from a letter written by Samuel Hamilton was read: "I have learned more of the height and depth, the length and breadth of the word of God from Dr. Briggs than from all other men together."

Rev. David Wylie offered a further amendment to the effect that the charges be dismissed, but wished it understood that he did not approve of the statements made by Dr. Briggs in his address.

Dr. W. G. T. Slodd made an earnest plea against the dismissal of the charges, arguing that a dismissal would be to dodge the question of Dr. Briggs' alleged heretical utterings.

The resolution as amended to dismiss was then read and the vote taken by roll call, resulting 94 for, 39 against; seventy-one ministers and twenty-three elders voting in the affirmative and twenty-six ministers and twenty-three elders voting in the negative. This action, however, does not end the controversy, as it will undoubtedly be taken before the New York synod.

VOLUNTEER POST

Hold a Delightful Reception and Unveil a Splendid Picture of the Members.

A delightful reception was held by Volunteer post, G. A. R., last evening, in which the families of the members also participated. About 200 were present in the post hall, Pythian castle, and spent a pleasant evening. The reception was for the purpose of presenting to the post a large, handsomely framed picture containing photographs of every member of the post, 107 in all. The work on this was done by McKecknie & Oswald, and it is a splendid picture of a magnificent body of men. The picture was presented to the post by Rev. W. H. Sloan in an eloquent address, and it was accepted by Post Commander Dr. J. M. Waddick, who also made an address.

An excellent program of music was carried out, and brief speeches of good fellowship were made by other members of the post. An elaborate supper was served in the dining hall, and every one present enjoyed the evening to the fullest extent.

M'KINLEY IS ELECTED,

And the Wages of the Workingman Go Down.

Some of the Results of the Success of the High-Tariff Advocate Made Painfully Apparent.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 5.—The Monongahela river coal operators have decided to reduce the rate for mining from 3 1-2 to 3 cents per bushel.

The cut will affect 8,000 men.

The excuse given for the cut is that the reduction is necessary in order that the river operators may compete with the railroad operators, who, since the recent strike, are paying the 3 cent rate.

There may be another strike.

THIRTY-FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Of the Washington Street Congregational Sunday School Celebrated.

The splendid Sunday school of the Washington Street Congregational church celebrated its thirty-first anniversary in an appropriate manner last evening at the church. A delightful program of exercises was carried out, including very pleasing choruses and marches by the primary classes.

The annual reports of the officers were read, showing the Sunday school to be in a most flourishing condition, with a membership of 838, by far the largest in the city. This is also a gain of 94 during the year.

The event of the evening to the young folks was the conferring of honors for good conduct and attendance, which was artistically done. Those receiving honors for one year's good conduct filed through a pretty arch of white and were presented with their badges by the pastor. Those receiving honors for two years passed under a red arch and received badges of the same color; the third year class passed under a blue arch; those of the fourth year under an orange arch, and those of the fifth year under a violet arch. The presentations were made by Rev. O. D. Fisher.

The program was interspersed with appropriate music and hymns, and concluded with an excellent address by Rev. D. M. Fisk, pastor of the First Congregational church.

ON GENERAL PRINCIPLES.

Two Men Lynched in Louisiana, Apparently for Amusement.

Bastrop, La., Nov. 5.—W. S. Felton and J. M. Smith were taken from the parish jail here Tuesday night and hanged. The two men were suspected of a murder at Merrouge on October 3, but this could not be proved against them.

The men knew of the feeling against them and threatened incendiarism and personal violence if they were in any way molested. They were finally put in jail from which they were taken by the indignant citizens and hanged.

THE ORDNANCE BUREAU.

Gen. Flagler's Annual Report Submitted.

The Gun Factory at Watervliet Reviewed.

What the Country Has Been Doing in the Line of Preparing for Defense in Case War Should Occur.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Gen. Flagler, chief of the ordnance bureau of the war department, says in his annual report just submitted to the secretary of war, that the improvements on the army gun factory at Watervliet arsenal have been almost completed, and he expects to have them completed by the end of this month. When the improvements are completed he estimates that the capacity of the gun factory will be sufficient to turn out twelve 8-inch, fifteen 10-inch, fifteen 12-inch and three 16-inch guns per annum, besides performing certain other necessary work.

He says the labor involved and the difficulties to be surmounted in supplying our fortifications with new model disappearing carriages for large guns is perhaps greater than supplying the guns themselves, and the work is some years behind the guns, and he especially recommends that the secretary of war urge congress to make the necessary appropriation for enlarging the facilities of the Water town arsenal in Massachusetts for the manufacture of these carriages.

No progress, it is stated, has been made by the Pneumatic Dynamite Gun company during the past year in the manufacture of guns contracted for by the government, and owing to financial embarrassments of the company, the government has extended the time allowed for the delivery of these guns.

The following estimates are submitted for the action of congress for armament and fortifications for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1893:

To complete the equipment of the south wing of the army gun factory, $326,000; for oil-tempered and annealed steel for 8, 10 and 12-inch guns, including the parts required for the manufacture of a type 16-inch gun, $1,122,000; for steel breech-loading, rifled seacoast mortars of 12-inch calibre, $725,000; for carriages for breech-loading mortars, 12-inch calibre, $448,500; for carriages for mounting new steel breech-loading 8, 10 and 12-inch guns, $1,805,000, and for the enlargement and improvement of the heavy gun carriage plant at Watertown arsenal, $151,000.

The question of procuring for the army a small arm magazine rifle, of reduced calibre, has, it is stated, occupied the attention of the department for some time, and after many experiments a reduced calibre of 0.30 inches was decided upon, and a satisfactory cartridge has been obtained and 100,000 of them have been manufactured at the Frankford arsenal.

"Reports from our army," the report says, "show that an expert soldier can fire the present Springfield single loader with the accuracy generally needed in action, about 20 times per minute. So far as rapidity of fire alone is concerned these reports reduce somewhat the almost universally estimated necessity for an immediate change to the magazine system."

Gen. Flagler adds that it is important to state that up to the present time the investigations made and knowledge gained by the department have not demonstrated so much excellence in the magazine arms which have been adopted by foreign nations as was expected.

VOTES THROWN OUT.

Democrats Polled a Larger Vote Than Republicans.

Surprising Results of the Vote in Some Precincts—An Old Timer Gives Some Good Advice.

"The great wonder is that we were not beaten by a much larger majority," said a prominent democrat last evening. "An average of 25 democratic votes were lost for the local ticket in every precinct in the city. In precinct C, of the Fourth, there were 26 tickets with Campbell's name alone marked and six tickets not marked at all. The 32 were evidently intended to be straight, and at least 30 of them would have gone for the local democratic ticket.

"In one precinct in the Eighth 22 tickets were lost in the same way, and in another in the Third 13 tickets were lost, and so it was all over the city. The trouble was the republicans were better organized. Outside of the instruction given by the Bee, the democrats had practically none. The republicans had men in every precinct instructing voters how to make their tickets. Then again, the republican executive committee had their judges and clerks picked out, while we let ours go by default or allowed the election board to select them, which was the same as if the republicans had made the selections. No, we lack organization. It requires money to run a campaign, and the democratic committee had none. There were not less than 750 democratic votes lost in this county, and you can readily see what the result would have been had our voters received the proper instructions. Our judges were not fly enough for their opponents. Republican judges openly told voters to place their marks before the republican eagle, and this without a protest. The count was fair and square, and we had a majority of the vote had our vote been got in properly."

THE THEATER.

Shenandoah at Wheeler's Opera House To-Morrow.

A Talk on Washington City—Robert Downing Next Week—After Dark Coming—Play Pointers.

Bronson Howard's greatest triumph, Shenandoah, which has met with such pronounced success in New York, Boston, Chicago and San Francisco, will be presented at the Wheeler for two nights, next Friday and Saturday, in the same manner in regard to cast, scenery and effects as seen during its long run in the above cities. The nicety with which the love interest is blended with the incidents of war is the keystone of Shenandoah's very great success. It is said to be everywhere permeated with a sentiment of deep patriotism, but through the rattle of musketry runs the beautiful love stories, which make up the lives of the heroes and heroines. The play is said to be the first piece of military order which has intelligently represented tactics of war, even the system of signalling on fire being given. In the third act is shown a picture of a battle scene on the skirt of an engagement, and it is claimed to be the greatest scene ever presented on the American stage. It will be played by the same cast as seen 300 nights in New York.

Washington City.

To-morrow evening at the Central Congregational church Mr. R. P. Holt will deliver an interesting lecture on Washington, Our Country's Capital, which will be illustrated by over 200 fine stereoptican views.

A Dark Secret.

This splendid melo-drama with its wonderful realistic effects is proving the hit of the season at the People's theater and has been greeted with crowded houses every night this week. Several theater parties of prominent society people have spent enjoyable evenings witnessing the piece.

Robert Downing.

Robert Downing, the talented young American tragedian, who now stands at the head of his profession as an exponent of the robust characters of the stage, will appear at Wheeler's opera house on Monday evening in a grand production of Shakespeare's Julius Caesar. This young actor was born in Washington. It was in Baltimore that he commenced his theatrical career, at the age of 16, with the stock company under Manager John T. Ford, and, to-day, though but a trifle over 30, he ranks among the greatest stars. Mr. Downing belongs to that peculiar robust, vigorous school of which the American stage has had but two prominent exemplars, viz.: Edwin Forest and John McCullough, and now comes the third in the person of this handsome, talented young actor, whose magnificent physique, powerful, though melodious voice, and vigorous manner, has earned for him the distinction of being the only purely heroic actor of which we can now boast. In the history of the American stage there cannot be found another instance where an actor has so suddenly become pre-eminent as has Robert Downing. Perseverance has done much for him, but all the perseverance in the world would have amounted to nothing had he not the true historic genius to support it.

After Dark.

The patrons of the People's theater will next week be treated to another splendid bit of stage realism in After Dark. The Philadelphia Record speaks as follows of the production of this piece in that city:

"Boucicault's After Dark, with its clever arrangement of scenes suggesting an earlier play by Augustin Daly, was given with spirit and earnestness by a strong company at the Empire theater last night. In the famous music hall scene there was some excellent sparring by Jim Corbett, the California champion; Jim Daly, the Philadelphia heavy-weight, and other pugilistic lights. Harry Meredith's Old Tom, Russell Bassett's Dicey Morris and Lavinia White's Eliza were notable features of the performance.

Frank Daniels' Comedy Company.

Frank Daniels with his big comedy company will hold the boards at the Wheeler opera house next Wednesday, November 11, and an evening of rich fun is promised. Daniels is a great comedian, naturally funny, and he has with him a strong company of good artists.

AT THE T. B. C.

Fine Program Rendered—Teacher Skelley Pleasantly Remembered.

The main room of the Toledo Business college was filled to the utmost capacity last evening by friends of students and teachers of the college, to listen to an interesting program. The Whiting male quartet gave several pleasing selections and were heartily encored. The address, "Life Insurance," by A. F. Campbell, was full of good points, and spoke well of the flourishing condition of insurance companies.

N. Huntsberger talked on "Symmetrical Development" in a learned manner, and declared that every young man could have a college education if he was determined in his desire.

Mr. J. R. Skelley's name was on the program for a recitation, but on account of the important event which had transpired during the week, Mr. Skelley's wedding, Mr. Davis kindly excused him, and instead of a recitation Mr. Davis called the bridegroom hither, and in well-chosen words presented him with an exquisite silver tete-a-tete set from the pupils and teachers of the T. B. C. Mr. Skelley expressed his thanks to one and all. An alumni association has been formed among the pupils of the college, and an entertainment will be given once each month.

Know only a comparatively few things thoroughly—all else is more or less uncertain.

Take your own case. What do you know about CARPETS, for instance? Are you competent to detect poor materials, or imperfect weaving, or unreliable colorings, or old-style patterns?

No.

Then will it not be wisdom on your part to make your purchases of CARPETS where all these points are taken care of in your interest, and where you are protected, not only from direct misrepresentation, but from the results of your own inexperience?

That seems plain enough.

Just two things we promise every customer. They are these:

That every salesman shall tell the whole truth about every piece of goods offered for sale; that anything which proves imperfect, through the appearance of any hidden defect subsequent to purchase, shall be made right.

The name of our firm stands behind these two guarantees.

HEALY'S WICKED TONGUE

He Continues to Abuse the Widow of Parnell.

Dillon Guarded by Police and Priests.

The Waterford Meeting of the National Federation Results in Many Street Fights and Scenes of Rioting.

Dublin, Nov. 5—Dispatches from Waterford, where the convention of the national federation is being held, say that great excitement prevails there. The streets are crowded with uproarious mobs of people ready for any kind of a disturbance. The police in their efforts to control the mob have been making a free use of their batons, with the result that several civilians have been injured.

Mr. Timothy Healy, who was horsewhipped Tuesday by Mr. McDermott, nephew of the late Charles Stewart Parnell and solicitor for the Parnell family, was one of the speakers.

He said, among other things, that he would not be deterred by violence from pursuing the course he had mapped out for himself, and repeated the language in reference to the widow of the Irish leader which he used at Longford on Sunday last and which led to the chastisement he received at the hands of Mr. McDermott.

Mr. Dilon, on arriving at Waterford, was received with mingled cheers and hisses. Three hundred police guarded the federation delegates on their way to the convention, which was held in the city hall. The police repelled repeated charges made by the mob. The Parnellite sympathizers tried to rush through the entrance of the city hall, but were beaten back.

The convention proceeding, Mr. Dillon confirmed Mr. O'Brien's Boulogne revelations, and added that the men now calling him a traitor had telegraphed him while he was in New York offering him the leadership in succession to Mr. Parnell.

Continuing Mr. Dillon said in spite of the continuous calumnies heaped upon him he had never before revealed this fact. Messrs. Harrington and Redmond and other prominent Parnellites had joined in the request, which was made after he had declared against the leadership of Mr. Parnell.

He refused the leadership because it was a painful and difficult position—a position which he had never sought or wished, and one which he would be slow to accept.

After arriving at Boulogne he told them that he could not accept the position unless all concurred in promising loyal support. Those men, one and all, promised that if he (Dillon) took the chairmanship they would be his loyal followers. He had done nothing since that altered his position a hair's breadth. For weeks at Boulogne they were as anxious to get Mr. Parnell out of the leadership as the majority were. If they had steadily adhered to that policy they might have saved Mr. Parnell from an impossible position. If any body in the world was responsible for Mr. Parnell's fate after Mr. Parnell himself, it was the men, who, when the supreme hour came, had not sufficient courage, manliness, or honorable friendship to take a firm stand and impose their judgment on him. (Cheers.)

Mr. Dillon left the convention hall on his way to the railway station guarded by police and 100 priests. A mob followed and kept up a continuous attack until Mr. Dillon obtained shelter in the station. A number of s kulls were cracked.

Thirty delegates while crossing a toll bridge were thrown to the ground and trampled upon, many being badly hurt, and bleeding profusely when reached by the police.

Several thousand Parnellites held the approaches to the convention hall, and everywhere struck down opponents. The whole quay, a mile in length, was the scene of savage fighting. Many persons were taken to the hospital.

It is estimated that 150 persons were seriously and many others dangerously injured during the fight here.

The mayor presided at a meeting held for the purpose of censuring Mr. John Dillon for his visit to this city.

The London Standard says of the Boulogne revelations: "The point of interest is that Mr. Gladstone consented to give a precise undertaking and that he demanded that secrecy be preserved. Only if the Liberals, when in office, broke their word, were they to be confronted by their pledges."

The St. James Gazette says: "Mr. O'Brien's account of the Boulogne nonsense confirms our previous criticisms. We only failed to make them half sweeping enough. The proceedings of committee room 15 were to be annulled and the patriots were to apologize to Parnell and the priests to bless him.

"Mr. Gladstone was to withdraw his letter and Parnell was to remain president of the National league. That is what he was to take. On the other hand he was only to give his retirement from the chairmanship of the party, and he would not consent to this compromise unless his successor was Mr. O'Brien. Parnell insisted on having his nominal successor in his pocket."

Cork, Nov. 5.—Great excitement prevails. Both parties are making their final appeal to the voters, and an active canvass is in progress.

The arrival of two additional companies of soldiery from Dublin indicates how the authorities regard the situation.

The police will all be on duty, either on the streets or in the barracks, awaiting the order to go to any place where they may be needed.

It is believed that a good portion of the three thousand unionist voters will be thrown for the Parnellite candidate, as there is no expectation that Sarsfield can be elected.

BANK FALURE.

London, Nov. 5.—The liabilities of Hirschfeld & Wolf, bankers of Berlin, whose suspension was yesterday announced amounting to 300,000 marks. Most of their depositors belong to the wealthy and aristocratic classes.

FACTORY BURNED.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 5.—The Moore desk factory was burned early this morning. There were five buildings ruined, valuable machinery and 2,000 feet of hardwood lumber, all of which was destroyed, the factory being just out of the city and no water supply being near. The loss is $78,000, with insurance at $30,000.

MEXICAN CONSULS.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The president has recognized the following consuls of Mexico: Salvador F. Maillefort, at Eagle Pass, Tex.; Carlos Fernandez Pasalaqua, at Deming, N. M., and Rafael G. Acosta, at Philadelphia.

BURIED HER ALIVE.

An Awful Crime Revealed In Massachusetts.

A Drunken Husband Assaults His Wife and Smothers Her to Death in a Grave.

Holyoke, Mass., Nov. 5.—An autopsy which was held yesterday on the body of Mrs. W. W. Holmes, who was found buried in the cellar of her Plainville home Tuesday, reveals the fact that the woman was buried alive.

Sand was found in her lungs which she had evidently swallowed while struggling with her drunken husband while he was in the act of burying her.

Holmes has said nothing as yet to implicate himself in the crime.

THE GAS TRUSTEES

Make a Compromise with Some of the Large Consumers.

The edict issued some days ago by the gas trustees has been carried into effect. In several cases a compromise has been effected, and the result as it now stands is as follows:

Rolling Mills, enough for annealing purposes.

Toledo Electric Light Works, entirely cut off.

Toledo Electric Street railway company, cut off altogether.

Smith Bridge company, all except for heating.

Woolson Spice company, all except for roasters.

Smead Foundry, cut off entirely.

Other large consumers will be reached to-day.

"It is not the purpose of the board to hurt anyone," said President Parsons this morning. "Where we can give gas we are doing it, but we are determined that the private consumers have first claims."

MET AN AWFUL DEATH.

Nineteen Men Killed in the Anaconda.

The Cable Broke and Dropped the Cage.

Bruised and Bleeding Workmen Torn to Pieces and Their Bones Scattered About the Mine.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 5.—Seventeen men met instant death in an awful form in the great Anaconda mine near here Wednesday. The time had come to shift the gangs of men, and a score of miners returning from work stepped out of the cage into the open air. Their places were at once taken by 19 men who were to take up the work they had just abandoned and the cage was started toward the depths below.

The rope had been unwound but a couple of times from the slowly revolving windlass, when there was a sudden snap, a cry of horror from the shaft in which the cage had but a moment before disappeared, and then a cry went up from the men who a moment before come to the surface.

The rope had broken and the cage with its 19 inmates was precipitated to the bottom of the mine. It was some little time before any assistance could be sent them. The shaft down which they had plunged was useless and other ways of getting at the place where they had fallen were roundabout.

Fortunately there was some help for the dead and dying men in the mine itself. A number of miners who were through work and waiting to be relieved were at the bottom waiting for the cage to take them out. Amidst them, narrowly missing some, the cage dashed.

It broke, and before their horror-stricken eyes were the mangled bodies of the companions whom they were waiting.

When they had recovered from the shock, word of the accident was sent through the mine and from the darkness came men hurrying to the relief.

There was little, however, that could be done. Of the 19 men who made the fearful ride 17 were dead, their forms crushed out of all semblance to those of human beings, while the two who were yet breathing have no hopes of recovery.

Their comrades bore them out of the ruin and awaited help from above, but any aid that could have been given them was useless.

The Anaconda mine is the biggest in this territory. It employs 400 men and was reopened, after a long closing, October 23. The fact that it was reopened on Friday was commented on at the time by superstitious miners and many were afraid to work in it.

PAYING THEIR BETS.

The Confectioners Doing a Rushing Business—The Women, God Bless Them, Win.

"Not even in presidential elections have the women taken such an interest in a contest," said a confectioner this morning to a Bee who was on a betting mission himself. "We are just rushed to death putting up boxes of candy lost on the election. It is safe to say that we have put up 250 boxes, and the orders are still coming in."

"Were the women all on one side?"

"Oh, not at all. A candy bet is one that a man has to pay whether he loses or wins. Yes, a pound of the best French, did you say?"

And he rushed off to help his assistants.

VISITORS GREETED.

Reception to the Supreme Master Workman of the A. O. U. W.

Supreme Master Workman Kingsley, of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, was given a splendid reception by the local members of the order at Memorial hall last evening. Mr. Kingsley is a pleasing speaker, and made an excellent address on the objects, aims and benefits of the organization.

Rev. Warren Wilson, of Detroit, past supreme master workman, and Rev. Herman, of Hamilton, grand master workman of Ohio, also made addresses that were well received. After the speech making, the visitors held an informal reception and shook hands with a large number.

ALIEN LABOR.

Proceedings Against a Tiffin Institution

On a Charge of Importing Contract Labor—Hearing in the U. S. Court This Afternoon.

An interesting case comes up for hearing before U. S. Commissioner Hall this afternoon.

The Belgian Glass company of Tiffin is charged with importing Beligan glass workers, and the chief witness is Louis Steuger, who, it is alleged, went to Belgium and made the contract with a number of men in that country and brought them here.

The men alleged in the warrant who came here under contract are Melchoir Andre, Francois Denlin and Alexander Denlin.

Just what defence will be made by the company is not known. It is claimed that the government has enough evidence to convict and that a good case will be made against the company.

THE NORTHERN NATIONAL

Declares a Dividend and Adds to Its Surplus.

Toledo banks continue on the high road of prosperity. This morning the directors of the Northern National bank met and declared a dividend of 3 per cent., and added $10,000 to its surplus, thus making a total surplus of $90,000.

The Merchants and Northern National are running neck and neck for third place, with the Merchants a little bit on the inside.

WILL PAY 50 PER CENT.

Boston, Nov. 5.—Assignee Pope estimates that the creditors of Irving A. Evans & Co. will get 50 per cent. No effort will be made to collect from the Potter estate on the Evans joint account.

The ball was a success financially and socially.

OBJECTS TO SHERIFF'S LEVY.

Mr. W. I. Squire Secures a Restraining Order from Judge Pugsley.

W. I. Squire filed a petition in common pleas court to-day against John B. Stuart, sheriff, for an injunction restraining him from levying on property of the plaintiff, or an execution on a judgment in transcript from the justice court of Norwalk township, Huron county, O., in the sum of $129.65. The plaintiff claims that the judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff in a case entitled Ira Lake against W. I. Squire, and that he had received notice of the pendency of such a suit. Judge Pugsley issued a temporary injunction.

WABASH STREET.

Proceedings to Condemn Begun in Probate Court.

The case of Toledo against the Toledo, St. Louis & Kansas City Railroad company was taken up for hearing in probate court to-day. It is an action to condemn property across the tracks for the opening up of Wabash street. The case was tried some time ago, but a new trial was granted on application of defendants on account of the wrong papers being delivered to the jury when it retired for deliberation.

BOUND OVER.

Fostoria, Nov. 5—(Special)—Alonzo Lyberger was arrested Monday night in a saloon for stealing a valuable watch from Christian Brookman while both were in the saloon. When he was arrested the watch dropped out of the leg of his pantaloons, and this fact showed his guilt.

He was bound over in the sum of $500.

SPORTING GOSSIP.

What the Ball People Are Doing This Fall.

Hoy has signed with the Athletics.

Holliday, Rhines and Harrington have gone on a hunting expedition together.

Silver Flint, the once great catcher, is dying in Chicago of hemorrhage of the lungs.

Comisky has signed to captain and manage the Cincinnati team next season. He gets $7,000 for his year's services.

The Athletics' infield next year will be Roger Connor, first base; Danny Richardson, second base; Joe Mulvey, third base, and Tom Corcoran, short stop, with Barnie for manager.

While none of the officials will admit it, it is as good as settled that Jake Beckley will captain the Pittsburgs next season. It is said that it has been the big fellow's ambition to do so, and he will be gratified in it. His appointment to the captaincy is understood to have been one of the conditions of his signing.

NEWS OF THE RAIL.

Phenomenal Increase in Excursion Business.

Officials Arraigned in Court—Statement of Earnings—Cinders.

"We are getting ready for next summer's business," remarked Moulton Houk, general passenger agent of the T. & O. C., to a Bee. "If we should put this preliminary work off until the last minute, we would work to a disadvantage all summer. The excursion business has been revolutionized within the last two or three years. Last summer we did the largest excursion business in the history of the road. I attribute the phenomenal increase to the low rates, the many new and interesting resorts opened up within the last few years, the increased and improved facilities for traveling, and the splendid accommodation for very little money.

"The principal reason, however, is the great reduction in rates, and the inclination on the part of the different roads to cater for excursion business. It is getting so now that when a half dozen people want to go any place they apply for excursion rates, and if there happens to be two lines they apply to both and derive the benefit of the competition. Rates are lower now than they have ever been before. There is a natural desire on the part of the public to go some place during the summer. There was a time when one road had everything its own way to a certain extent, but there have been two many miles of rail laid in the last few years for that, and the public has not been slow to catch on. The result is they demand a lower rate, and the roads have nothing else to do but give it. There was a time when a fare and a third was considered a good rate. Some lines then offered one fare for the round trip, other roads met it, and that settled it. This summer there were excursions run that did not net over a cent a mile."

Will Give a Ball.

The railway clerks met in regular session at Friendship hall last evening. About the only business transacted was the adoption of a new ritual. Invitations to the second annual ball, to be given December 3 are being mailed. The boys are sparing no pains or expense to make this event a success.

Official Change.

Samuel Griffith, corresponding clerk in the freight department of the B. and O. at Columbus, has accepted the position of voucher clerk under T. Harriott, general freight and traffic manager, Baltimore, Md.

Charles Kemmery, until recently agent of the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan branch of the Big Four at Anderson, Ind., has been appointed traveling agent of the Elkhart Fast Freight line at Indianapolis.

J. E. Weller, of the Pan Handle freight department at Pittsburg, has been appointed contracting agent of the Vandalia in that city.

A Monthly Showing.

The following monthly statement issued by the Columbus, Shawnee and Hocking Valley road for October shows the earnings for that month:

October, 1891	$70,157 56
October, 1890	36,146 26
Increase (94 per cent.)	$34,011 30

Comparative earnings October and September:

October, 1891	$70,157 56
September, 1891	57,757 79
Increase (21.4 per cent.)	$12,399 77

Say They Are Not Guilty.

St. Louis, Nov. 5.—Samuel B. Knight, general freight agent, and Milton Knight, freight and traffic manager of the Wabash Railroad company, were arraigned in the United States district court yesterday. Their appearance was in answer to an indictment charging them with violating the interstate commerce law. They pleaded not guilty and gave bond in $1,000 each.

Cinders.

The Rock Island earned $1,739,479 in October.

The division freight agents of the Pan Handle met in Columbus yesterday.

The winter time table on all lines will go into effect one week from next Sunday.

The directors of the Chicago and Alton declared a dividend of $2 on each share of stock yesterday.

H. T. Porter, assistant engineer of the T., St. L. and K. C. at Frankford, Ind., is at headquarters to-day.

A. L. Mills, chief engineer of the Clover Leaf, went out on the road last evening to finish up his annual inspection.

The Pan Handle has declared a 2 per cent. dividend out of the earnings of the past six months on its preferred stock, payable on or after November 20.

The Pennsylvania railroad has just declared a semi-annual cash dividend of 3 per cent. on the capital stock, which makes 6 per cent. for the year, and gives general satisfaction. The company paid 5 per cent. in 1886, 5 1-2 in 1887, 5 in 1888 and 1889, and 5 1-2 in 1890.

City Auditor's Office.

Toledo, O., Oct. 28, 1891.

The committee on ways and means of the common council of the city of Toledo, Ohio, and the undersigned invite sealed proposals at this office to at 7 o'clock p. m., for the purchase of Street Improvement Bonds to the amount of Twelve Hundred and Fifty-eight 38-100 ($1,258 38-100) Dollars bearing date Oct. 19th, 1891, and payable as follows: One Hundred and Thirty-three and 38-100 ($133 38-100) Dollars on the 19th day of April, 1892, and One Hundred and Twenty-five ($125) Dollars at the expiration of every six months thereafter, to and including October 19, 1896. At the office of the city treasurer, with interest at the rate of five (5) per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually at the same place as evidenced by coupons to be attached to said bonds.

Said improvement bonds are issued pursuant to Section 2704 to 2707 of the Revised Statutes of the state of Ohio, and also under an ordinance of the common council of the city of Toledo, Ohio, "To provide for the issue of Improvement Bonds to pay the cost and expense of the improvement of State street, from Spielbusch avenue to Canton avenue.—Passed Oct. 12th, 1891.

The said bonds will be sold at not less than par and accrued interest, to the highest bidder.

Bidders will be required to state the gross amount they will pay for the bonds besides the accrued interest to date of delivery at Toledo, Ohio. They will also be required to deposit with each bid an amount of money or a certified check on some responsible bank equal to at least five (5) per centum of the par value of the bonds, so bid for, as a guarantee of good faith, and that the bid so made (if successful) will be fulfilled in accordance with the terms thereof, and the requirements of the law and ordinances. When the bids have been examined, and the award made according to law, all monies or checks deposited as guarantees shall be returned to the depositor, or held by the city auditor subject to his call except that of the successful bidder, which shall be held and considered, and accepted as part payment of the bonds so awarded or sold, but should there be any repudiation of the contract or agreement, or refusal to accept and pay for the bonds so sold, then and in that case the deposit shall be forfeited to the city of Toledo, and shall become the property of said city, in compensation for loss and expenses attending the sale of said bonds and as liquidated damages for repudiation of bid. And no bid will be received if not accompanied by money or check aforesaid.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Proposals should be addressed to the Auditor of the city of Toledo, Ohio," and be indorsed "Proposals for improvement bonds."

City Auditor's Office.

Toledo, O., Oct. 28, 1891.

The committee on ways and means of the common council of the city of Toledo, Ohio, and the undersigned invite sealed proposals at this office to at 7 o'clock p. m., for the purchase of Street Improvement Bonds, to the amount of Sixteen Thousand Three Hundred and Thirty-four 83-100 ($16,334.83-100) Dollars, bearing date Nov. 2d, 1891, and payable as follows: Six Hundred and Fifty-nine and 83-100 Dollars ($659 83-100) on the 2d day of May, 1892, and Eight Hundred and Twenty-five Dollars at the expiration of every six months thereafter, to and including Nov. 2d, 1901. At the office of the city treasurer, with interest at the rate of five (5) per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually at the same place as evidenced by coupons to be attached to said bonds.

Said improvement bonds are issued pursuant to Section 2704 to 2707 of the Revised Statutes of the state of Ohio, and also under an ordinance of the common council of the city of Toledo, Ohio, "To provide for the issue of Improvement Bonds to pay the cost and expense of the improvement of Superior street, from Madison street to Orange street."—Passed Oct. 12th, 1891.

The denomination of these bonds will be first payment one bond of $659.83, and thereafter one of $825 each payment.

The said bonds will be sold at not less than par and accrued interest, to the highest bidder.

Bidders will be required to state the gross amount they will pay for the bonds besides the accrued interest to date of delivery at Toledo, Ohio. They will also be required to deposit with each bid an amount of money or a certified check on some responsible bank equal to at least five (5) per centum of the par value of the bonds, so bid for, as a guarantee of good faith, and that the bid so made (if successful) will be fulfilled in accordance with the terms thereof, and the requirements of the law and ordinances. When the bids have been examined, and the award made according to law, all monies or checks deposited as guarantees shall be returned to the depositor, or held by the city auditor subject to his call except that of the successful bidder, which shall be held and considered, and accepted as part payment of the bonds so awarded or sold, but should there be any repudiation of the contract or agreement, or refusal to accept and pay for the bonds so sold, then and in that case the deposit shall be forfeited to the city of Toledo, and shall become the property of said city, in compensation for loss and expenses attending the sale of said bonds and as liquidated damages for repudiation of bid. And no bid will be received if not accompanied by money or check aforesaid.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Proposals should be addressed to the Auditor of the city of Toledo, Ohio," and be indorsed "Proposals for improvement bonds."

W. T. WALKER, City Auditor.

Mr. Depew's prophecy has come true: the world's fair assassins are buried under more than the estimated majorities.

The change of administration will create another lot of brass-mounted colonels and brigadiers on the governor's staff.

As a republican must be speaker of the house, our Toledo pride points to Hon. C. P. Griffin as the man for the place. Experience and ability are his qualifications.

Singular, whenever the republicans capture a senator in this district Fulton county is on deck. There was Brigham in 1881, Geyser in 1887, and now Rorick. Lucky boys up in Fulton.

Though Mr. Squire will retire from the presidency of the league club early in January, he will have the pull on McKinley's office strings until his friends are well fixed. See Squire, if you want something real nice.

As a pronounced friend of Foraker representative Griffin will naturally be antagonized for speaker by the Sherman members of the house. It will be interesting to watch the maneuvers of this foxy politician, but that he will get there is the general opinion in this part of Ohio.

Gladstone is as consistant as fearless. His letter in favor of home rule for Scotland is the key note for more discussion than has been heard in Auld Scotia since its union with England. The grand old man is developing into a grand old democrat. Pity another cycle couldn't be added to his years.

Major General Fred Blankner has a new crowd to deal with, but it is safe to say he will be elected third assistant sergeant-at-arms of the Ohio house of representatives. He has held that office, by election of members, more than thirty years. A legislature in Ohio without Fred Blankner would be like the play of Hamlet with Hamlet left out.

Venezula has restored the duty on corn, beans, peas and rice. If protection for agricultural products is good for a country, a little republic with food to buy and land to be cultivated wants the benefit of it. The favored-nation mint doesn't go into her soup. The jerking back and forth and here and there of the reciprocity string will keep small statesmen busy and furnish an amusing pastime if only the people do not get to understand the game.

Senator Sherman formulated a law to crush out trusts. Here are some of the trusts that have been organized and strengthened since that law went onto the statute book: The Sugar Trust. The Glass Trust. The White Lead Trust. The Edged Tool Trust. The Cotton Oil Trust. The Crockery and Glassware Trust. The Steel Rail Trust. The McKinley law to encourage and foster trusts has too strong a draft for the Sherman weakling.

France builds temples for the use of its labor organizations or pays the rent of the halls where they hold meetings. The government has been importing and storing food for its poor people against the threatened season of scarcity. The paternal idea in government is still large in the republic. Better than this kindly-intended supervision would be education and opportunity to enable the laborer to take care of himself. The new free school law is a move in the right direction, but it will take generations to eradicate what has been generations taking root.

The remarkable success of Gov. Boies in Iowa makes him a presidential quantity of more than ordinary consequence. Of course Grover Cleveland will be the candidate of his party for president if he will accept the nomination. No other person will be seriously considered. Boies will be a splendid running mate. Having carried Iowa twice, and this year having carried his whole state ticket to victory he will be able to command electoral votes in his section. Keep a political eye on the combination Cleveland and Boies.

It is too soon to give exact figures but it is evident the election in Ohio on Tuesday is not an indication that the majority of the votes indorse McKinley's high tariff. The people's party is as radically opposed to the measure as is the democratic party. Whether the third party votes were originally democrats or republicans, their opposition to the present republican organization is now pronounced upon the tariff issue, so though McKinleyism has a plurality it is really in the minority in Ohio.

Just how and how much the high-taxer loves the farmer is now recklessly betrayed. "Great rejoicing over the crushing defeat of the farmer. * * The power of the farmer in Kansas politics is broken, for the time at least." Sure enough; what business has the farmer in politics anyway. It is right for the manufacturing interests and the moneyed monopolists to combine to control supply and regulate prices, but what business has the farmer doing these things? He is simply to scrabble along and pay his taxes and his interest money and be thankful for the crumbs that fall to him from the table of the highly protected autocrat. For the farmers who coincide in this opinion there is small need to worry, except for their blindness.

Boston republican organs are making a funny mess of their study of election returns. Hitherto the hue and cry has gone forth that the students of political economy in college and university rooms were sowing the pernicious seeds of free trade. Book study and theories were of no account; it was the practical, every-day man who knew all about the tariff, who understood the question. And these theorists were voters and commanded votes; hence one great cause of defection in the blue-blooded Bay state. The Boston Journal takes another tack in its hunt for a balmy breeze or two after the blow of yesterday. It finds that the republican vote was heaviest in the neighborhood of republican libraries and art museums—in the better part of the city, and that "the democratic vote was weakest in the most intelligent parts of the city."

Well, then, according to republican authority, democrats have the college-bred men and, also, the poor classes which cannot afford to own homes near parks and art galleries, and it's no wonder they got there by a large majority. When a man makes figures to-day he should try and remember what figures he made yesterday or people will not have confidence in his arithmetic.

Now that the campaign is closed it is to be hoped we will be given a rest from the stupid gabble about the Cobden club, pauper labor and other dreadful things, over in England. The attempt made by republicans to carry any point by showing the attitude of England on the subject and then appealing to national hatred, should be too plain in its motive to carry any force. England has a monarchial form of government, a little circumscribed island territory, headquarters for the greatest empire in the world; it has free trade and is mistress of the seas, and the most contented and best conditioned working population of any country in Europe. The English laborer buys his food and his clothes cheaper than the American laborer does, and works, as a rule a third less hours. It is lamentable that with all the advantages of freedom and unlimited land supply, the laborer of this country should be on the level of comparison with old world workers in any particular. If he were not legislated against he would be so infinitely above and superior in his situation there would be no debatable ground. Hatred of the south as a campaign sentiment for republicans, has given place to hatred of England, all because of the tariff question, but an honest man will see such comparisons are futile so far as proving anything is concerned. If anything were proven, it would be in favor of unrestricted trade.

One would suppose that a "clipping bureau" was a depot of information. One is sometimes greatly mistaken. A publishing firm in Boston brought out a new edition of "The Complete Angler" and received a letter for "Izaak Walton Esq." (in its care). Mr. Walton was advised that his book was making a great stir and the bureau would send notices to papers, etc. It is related that a Boston editor, who republished a favorite poem by Mrs. Browning received a letter from an admirer, asking the poet's full address, as he was greatly impressed by her remarkable effort. With examples like this before one, Fame loses her sparkle and ambition wilts.

Ex-Speaker Reed, he of the sash and blazer, who desires to have his full-size representation grace the walls of the capitol, had his portrait painted in London. This is how he patronizes home industry. He should be obliged to pay duty on it as a foreign product.

Please don't build a tall tower in Chicago for the world's fair. Seventeen-story buildings are high enough. The millions it would cost would build a memorial temple with marble and granite in it from every quarry in the United States.

It's amusing to read the forecasts in the lights of the after casts.

A BARREN VICTORY.

Gov. Campbell's failure of re-election in Ohio can scarcely be regarded as a defeat—it is rather a drawn battle. Ohio is a republican state, yet after a campaign in which all the resources of republicanism, financial and otherwise, were lavishly marshalled, the republicans were barely able to retain their lead of last year.—St. Louis Republic.

In Ohio McKinley wins a barren victory through the defection of democrats caused by the injection of a false issue into a campaign that should have been fought on the lines of opposition to the policy represented by the republican candidate. Contrasting the result in New York, Massachusetts and Iowa with that in Ohio, and there will be seen under conditions which it will be impossible for republicans to make even a showing for their presidential candidate next year. Had the democrats of Ohio entered the campaign as thoroughly united as their friends in New York and Massachusetts they would to-day be rejoicing with them in the downfall of protection.—Chicago Times.

The great democratic victory in New York cannot fail to consolidate and reassure the party in all of the states. There, as well as in Ohio, the republican campaign was cowardly and contemptible. In the one state republicanism practically confined its energies to a prolonged anti-Tammany bawl. In the other, although the high priest of monopoly taxation was himself the candidate, it dodged the infamous McKinley law and made the fight on the silver question. The sweeping democrat victory in New York, a pivotal state, would in any event have been more than an offset for the triumph of McKinley in Ohio, and its significance will not be lost upon those republicans who are capable of perceiving the difference between the Dutch taking Holland and the Dutch taking Lonon. The result in Ohio is not properly to be taken as measuring the sentiment of the people on the subject of monopoly tariffs. It will not be doubted that McKinley and his following will make the most of it, chiefly with reference to his appearance as a presidential candidate next year, but while Ohio contains an unusually large amount of ignorance and wrong-headedness on financial and economic questions, the triumph of McKinley is due as much to local causes, chief among them being the democratic split in Cincinnati, as to the popular liking for financiers and stupid economists.—Chicago Herald.

Take One of Your Size.

Chili has 300,000 square miles of land, but probably not more arable land than the state of Pennsylvania. The population of Chili is one million less than the population of Pennsylvania. The battle in New York has ended in a republican Waterloo. Its result shows that New York is no longer a doubtful state, and greatly simplifies the calculations for the presidential contest of 1892.—St. Louis Republic.

A momentous victory for democracy and good government is won in this state. New York has gone democratic by a good majority. Mr. Flower is elected. Tom Platt is beaten in his effort to seize upon the state and to rule it as his province. There is an end of the most despicable and unscrupulous boss-ship known here since Tweed went to prison.—New York World.

TO TRADE WITH GERMANY.

The New Treaty is About Ready to Publish.

The German Minister Wants the Privilege of Giving it Publicity in Germany First.

New York, Nov. 5.—A special to the Herald from Washington says the new reciprocity treaty with Germany wil probably be announced at the coming meeting of the German reichstag.

The details have been perfected and the treaty has been made, but the German minister asked the privilege of making the first formal announcement in Germany. The substantial outlines of the treaty are concessions to this country on breadstuffs and cereals, no higher than the duties conceded to Austria-Hungary by the new treaty with that country.

These duties are about one half those charged upon similar products from other countries. Germany makes these concessions in return for the free entry of beet root sugar.

THE CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS

The Republicans Gained One Seat in the Next House.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Six congressmen to fill vacancies were elected. In the Fifth Michigan district, vacated by the death of M. E. Ford, dem., Charles F. Belknap, rep., was elected over John T. Lawrence, dem., by from 1,200 to 1,500 votes. In the Twenty-second New York district the seat lately resigned by J. W. Russell, rep., was filled by N. M. Curtis, rep., he having defeated W. F. Porter, dem., by a considerable majority. The Second South Dakota district, vacated by the death of John M. Gable, rep., elected John J. Jolly, rep., by about 4,000 majority, he beating J. M. Woods, dem., and H. W. Smith, ind. In the Second New York district Alfred C. Chapin, dem., ex-mayor of Brooklyn, was elected to the seat resigned by David A. Boody, dem., beating Henry Bristol, rep. In the Tenth New York district Bourke Cochran, Tammany dem., defeated James B. Townsend, rep., and John Houser, social labor. This seat was vacated by the death of Gen. Spinola. The Twelfth New York district was the one represented by Roswell P. Flower. He resigned to run for governor, and the candidates were William McMichael, rep., Joseph L. Little, Tammany dem., David Devenny, county dem., and John J. Flick, social labor. Little was elected.

Contests in the Next House.

Notices of intention to contest the right to the seats of six members-elect to the house of representatives in the Fifty-second congress have been filed with the clerk of the house. They are as follows: Henry T. Noyes vs. Hosea H. Rockwell, from the Twenty-eighth New York district; John B. Reynolds vs. George W. Shouk, from the Twelfth Pennsylvania district; Thomas H. Greevy vs. Edward Schull, from the Twentieth Pennsylvania district; Alexander K. Craig vs. Andrew Stewart, from the Twenty-fourth Pennsylvania district; Thomas E. Miller vs. William Elliott, from the Seventh South Carolina district, and John V. McDuffie vs. Louis W. Turpin, from the Fourth Alabama district. In the Pennsylvania cases the contestees were elected as republicans, while in the other cases the contestees were elected as democrats. In the last house of representatives there were 17 contested election cases before the committee on elections.

MERCHANTS NATIONAL BANK.

Semi-Annual Meeting—New President—Splendid Record.

The directors of the Merchants National bank held their semi-annual meeting yesterday afternoon and decided to place $25,000 to the surplus, making the total surplus $100,000. This fact in face of the panics and failures throughout the country, speaks volumes for the success, progress and prosperity of the Merchants National.

It has been known for six months and more that the state of President Boice's health makes it an imperative necessity that he should retire from active business, and at the annual meeting in January Mr. Boice will retire. Two names are prominently mentioned in connection with the office, N. H. Swayne and Lawrence Newman. Either will fill the bill, and it will be probably one or the other. M. J. Wilcox is also mentioned in connection with it, and he would be an A1 man.

CLEVELAND THE MAN.

The result in New York will be disheartening to the presidentially inclined leaders of the republican party. It means Grover Cleveland for president, and there is not a man in that party who can beat him.

Let them bring on their Blaine, with free trade reciprocity, or McKinley, with his robber tariff for the rich, or the man at the white house, whose chief object seems to be a second term, and Cleveland will lead any one of them a race that will end in such a victory for the democratic party as never before was heard in the history of the country.

The lesson of the election, suggestive enough even before election, is "Cleveland and Tariff Reform."

The time is not far distant when democrats will be called on to choose their leader, and the New York statesman will be the man.—Youngstown Vindicator.

KANSAS CITY REAL ESTATE.

The Bottom Drops Out of the Boom and Gold Is Found on the Streets.

A Kansas City real estate man has been in the city for several days with a view of trading off corner lots in that city for some property here. So far he has been unsuccessful. The gentleman would like to transfer his interests from Kansas City to Toledo, but sees no immediate prospects of so doing.

"By the way, what became of that search for gold in the streets of Kansas City?" asked Mr. N. H. Swayne yesterday.

"Oh, nothing so far. The search caused considerable excitement at the time, but it has died out."

"I presume the gold sought was that lost in the real estate boom," laughed the stalwart railroad director as he walked away.

The joke has been going the rounds this morning, and it will be told in Kansas City before night.

THE BRAZILIAN TROUBLE.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The department of state has no information regarding the revolutionary movement of the Brazilian congress, and officers of the department are not disposed to credit the report. In confirmation of their opinion they quote recent advices that the Brazilian congress has recently called the president of Brazil to account for alleged arbitrary acts and it is thought improbable that congress would seek relief in a dictatorship.

MENTIONED ON THE STREETS.

That there will not be a constitutional convention held.

That a fee bill will not be considered by the next legislature.

That Mayor Emmick is now on the rack as to his future prospects.

That President Squire's signature will be potent with Gov. McKinley.

That the fellows who claim "I did it," are more numerous than ever.

That Earl Kerans wants to return to the stewardship of the Toledo asylum.

That Toledo, once more, has no immediate representative in the Ohio senate.

That the republicans do not feel as badly as they did about the Australian ballot.

That the taxation amendment is defeated, as straight tickets played hob with the vote.

That the proposition to issue bonds for park purposes received a good majority in the city.

That a congressional district will be mapped out by the new legislature for Kent Hamilton.

That Chairman Tucker, of the republican campaign committee, will put in his oar for a fat state office.

That Senator Ryan does not feel blue over his defeat, especially since the senate is so strongly republican.

That Charley Griffin is having his picture mounted preliminary to a lively canvass for speaker of the house.

That republicans will tire of voting the democratic ticket, if democrats themselves do not support their nominees.

That the colored orator, W. M. A. Vena, will make another effort to secure a place when the offices are distributed.

That the friends of Tom Cook have entered him thus early in the race to succeed Sheriff Stuart two years hence.

That the street commissioner had the usual heavy force at work on election day, to assist in raising the republican majority.

That a fight in dead earnest is on between the followers of Sherman and Foraker in Toledo, with chances in favor of the former.

That Jim Southard is now sorry his peering into the future did not develop the republican landslide in the senatorial district.

That L. C. Laytin, of Huron county, expects a reasonably solid support from this part of the state in the race for the speakership.

That the democrats of the Fourth and Fifth wards feel happy over the handsome majorities rolled up for Gov. Campbell in their wards.

That Col. Isaac D. Smead will return to a position as one of the penitentiary managers. There will be no opposition to this appointment in Toledo.

That Collector Waldorf, Postmaster Brown and Collector Austin will insist on Flickinger and Heller standing by their promise to vote for John Sherman.

That Carl Beckham, as he views the returns from the county, has renewed his hours of wailing over his defeat for representative in the republican county convention.

That Chairman Tucker released several hundred of his employes last evening, and many of them will now have no visible means of support until the election in the spring.

That Major McKinley, by his failure to distribute crumbs in this neck of woods, will give Postmaster Brown another opportunity to display his map of the northwestern desert at the next republican state convention. It has been wrapped up since the Dayton scramble for Mr. Charles Pratt for supreme court judge.

THE K. OF L. CONVENTION.

Delegates Are Dropping In, and Committees Begin Work This Week.

H. F. Dempsey, of Pittsburg, Pa., delegate from district assembly No. 3, registered at the Jefferson house yesterday, the first to arrive of the delegates to the Knights of Labor convention to be held here next week. Mr. Dempsey is a member of the committee on law, which will begin its sessions to-morrow evening at the Jefferson. General Secretary Hayes is expected to-day, and the delegates will now drop in at a lively rate.

The arrangements of the local committee are about completed. The invitations to prominent citizens and representatives of other labor organizations to act as vice presidents of the public meeting will be sent out to-day. This meeting will be held in Memorial hall Tuesday evening next, and all citizens of Toledo are cordially invited to attend.

At the meeting of Joan of Arc assembly last evening report was made that arrangements had been completed for the dance at Pythian castle on Wednesday next. There will be full orchestral music, a supper, and everything inviting, General Master Workman Powderly leading the grand march. Complimentary tickets are issued to delegates, and all will probably attend.

The local committee meets in Walbridge hall on Sunday morning for the very last arrangements. The credentials committee meets at the Jefferson on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Dempsey reports that D. A. 3, the third oldest assembly in the order, gained 500 in membership in the last year. If all the sub-divisions have had a like increase the order of the Knights of Labor is evidently booming.

CRUELLY DESERTED.

Mrs. Jones Manner, of Toledo, Left Penniless by Her Husband.

When Mayor Berry, of Newport, reached his office yesterday morning he was confronted by a woman who gave her name as Mrs. James Manner. She had two little children with her, and stated that she needed assistance in getting to her home, at Toledo, O. She said her husband was employed on the C. & O. railroad at this point, and had brought her and the family here to live about a month ago. About a week ago the first pay day came around, and her husband, after drawing his wages, cruelly deserted her and their children, and left them in destitute circumstances. Ever since he left she and the children have been kindly cared for by friendly neighbors. As Mrs. Manner is an Ohio woman, Mayor Berry addressed a letter to Mayor Mosby, asking him to provide transportation for the unfortunates to their home. Overseer of the Poor, Officer Frank Roll, of Newport, escorted Mrs. Manner to the mayor's office in this city, and they were started on their way home yesterday afternoon by Mayor Mosby.—Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, Nov. 4.

SAID ABOUT PEOPLE.

Alphonse Daudet, the French author, was a country school teacher earning a very scant salary when he set out for Paris to better his condition. Twenty years later he was paid for his "Sappho" the largest sum ever received by an author for a novel.

"Sam" Jones was a drayman in Atlanta before he became a preacher, and his outfit is described as a "small, rickety, rattling, ramshackling wagon, and a sorrel horse that was old and experienced enough to have come down from the revolutionary war."

The supposition that St. Gaudens is the only sculptor to whom Gen. Sherman sat for a bust is, the Boston Transcript declares, erroneous. This newspaper says that Sherman gave numerous long sittings to Franklin Simmons, the American sculptor, in Rome.

A. F. Pemberton, a magistrate of Victoria, B. C., who recently died at the age of 83, was one of the pioneers in the great northwest. He was famous in younger days for his daring riding, versatility in speaking Indian dialects and his influence with the different tribes.

Mrs. Marshall O. Roberts, who is soon to become the wife of Capt. Vivian, personated the character of Mary, Queen of Scots, with considerable splendor at the noted Vanderbilt fancy-dress ball, and was said at the time to look very much like the pictures of that famous beauty.

Carrruthers, a Scotch editor, looked so much like Thackery that upon one occasion when Carrruthers called upon Thackery the maid who met him at the door laughed in his face because she thought her master in a fit of absent-mindedness had come home and asked for himself.

Mr. Parnell was a pleasant man when he unbent—quiet, gentlemanly and courteous. His reading was not extensive, and, except on politics, mines and chemistry he had very little to say. Occasionally he would appear in a well-fitting coat and well "groomed," but he usually was unkempt and ill-dressed.—London Truth.

Mrs. Stewart Menzies has performed the feat of "killing" five salmon, weighing on an average more than 20 pounds each, in one day's fishing on the Spey river in Scotland. The Spey is considered one of the most difficult salmon streams in the world to fish, and the exploit of Mrs. Menzies is regarded as a wonderful performance.

The most remarkable official career in the history of the United States was that of John Quincy Adams. It extended over 48 years and embraced 15 years in diplomatic service as minister to Russia, Prussia and the Netherlands, 5 years as senator, 8 years as secretary of state, 4 years as president and 16 years as representative in congress.

It is not always the famous men who are admitted into the councils of the great. Mr. Lovejoy, the head porter of the Fifth Avenue hotel, is one of the few men in New York who enjoy confidential relations with Secretary of State James G. Blaine. During Mr. Blaine's visit last week he had more than one interesting talk with the secretary.

BARBARA MOSS ABROAD.

A Hunt for Some Parisian Haunts and Celebrities.

Home of Victor Hugo---Studio of Rosa Bonheur.

The First Chapter in a Custom House Serial—Homeward Bound via Stratford-on-Avon, Warwick and Leamington Spa.

When I took my departure for Europe a good Toledo friend said to me, "be sure and visit the home of Victor Hugo and tell us about it." Another said to Mrs. B.—"do not fail to see Rosa Bonheur and her studio." Well, it isn't so easy a thing to command celebrities to open their doors and take you in. Those who are worth visiting are too busy to be bothered. There was no trouble meditating at Hugo's tomb in the Pantheon, and any person you met would tell you how Paris was hung with black the day of his funeral, and what noble good deeds he and his family after him are renowned for in the city. But to find his home, his study, the very place where one could imagine oneself in the atmosphere of his genius, was another thing.

Mrs. B. and I raced up and down "Victor Hugo avenue," which is one of the twelve wide streets that radiate from the Arc de Triomphe, hunting a house with a placard on it. We stopped a cab driver, but he couldn't remember anything about Hugo. He couldn't read French writing and he couldn't talk his own language so a Christian could understand it. We climbed out and hunted up an English speaking French woman and between the two of them they got our fares and a fee and we trudged on in the rain around the wrong corner and down the wrong avenue. A kind Frenchman who could understand when we shrieked "Victor Hugo, son maison," led us back and pointed another way. We went; we found an old looking manse in the midst of a lawn of trees and shrubs and there was a wooden tablet set up which said Victor Hugo, something—ici (here). We crossed to a church and interviewed a benevolent priest who loitered on the steps and he paid no attention to our need for a guide, but tried to lure us into the interior of his building, where there was a box with a wide slit like a grinning mouth in it, yawning for alms. We made our escape, determined to go it alone. We went, and found the gate locked, and concluded it was past the hour and we would go home and come another day now we had discovered the spot.

When the other day came Mrs. B. was painting cows in the Luxembourg gallery, so I beguiled an artist friend who had a half day to spare to go with me to prosecute my search for genius laden atmosphere and old chairs and book cases. He had been in Paris two years and nobody before had pestered him about Hugo's home, but "as I had been to the trouble to find it out myself, he would be more than happy to escort me."

The air was delightful and we walked. We went out of our way to the Arc de Triomphe to start from there, because I couldn't find the way otherwise. Through the avenue Champs Eleysees to the Arc, thence the length of the long avenue Victor Hugo, the only street in the city where we found the pave upturned for some kind of a relaying, and the walks piled with blocks, gravel, tools, and what-not. At last we were at the quaint old place, and two priests answered our knock at the iron gate. We passed in and my friend, who speaks French, told them the object of our visit, and filled their hands with coppers before they had time to explain that this was simply an old structure that was to be moved away and a grand church to be named for the great author was to be erected here, because it was a beautiful spot at the end of the avenue. Victor Hugo's home was "over there," "then this way," then "that," then "au gauche," and we would find it.

I fancied Mr. C. looked a bit disgusted, but he thanked the three priests who talked in concert and told us all about it, thanked them in beautiful French and we walked away.

We went winding along "that way," and "there" and then another way, asking every wise looking native we met where was Victor Hugo's house. One of them attempted to send us back to the iron gate and the old, many-gabled house that had made me so positive and so humiliated, but we were too much for him; we wouldn't go. He didn't seem to like it at all, but we left him jabbering and flinging his arms like a windmill, and as we were crossing another street to get another where, we ran upon the politest man in the world. He was also the handsomest. He had an open Baedeker in his hand. Here was our relief at last. You can find everything in Baedaker from a dance house to a deified saint. We waylaid him gently. Ah, what full, glorious brown eyes; what a noble brow and silken jet mustache.

"Francaise, monseur?"

"Non, senor, Espagnole."

He anticipated our wants; he ran over page after page of index for us with the most entrancing smile of assurance and the most dulcet Spanish speech which Mr. C. translated to me as: "Do allow me the pleasure; I am un etranger like yourself and shall be so happy." When we would go he detained us and pressed his book into our hands, while he stepped back and waited. I never saw such fine essence of politeness in my life. I am determined to go to Spain to learn if it be exceptional or common. He made us feel that we were serving him by allowing him to serve us, and he did it so graciously and he was so distressingly handsome I was quite beside myself, and if good, patient Mr. C. hadn't been beside me I might have offered him my heart and hand and my Petoskey lot then and there.

No, we didn't find Hugo in the index, but just as the sun was sinking behind Mt. Valerian (I think that's where it set that night) we came wearily upon a plain, yellow stone boarding-house looking front which bore a tablet, "Victor Hugo died in this hotel" (day and date forgotten already.)

We rang the bell; a smart concierge in a tall white cap put her head out a window and told us the Hugo effects were not to be seen, the family were not in the city, they didn't live there when they were, and the only comfort we got after our afternoon's tramp was the privilege of gazing at the tablet and giving rein to our imagination ab libitum. We put a check rein on the phantom steed pretty soon, for we were tired and hungry.

Along with the handsome Espagnole Mr. C. is the politest fibber I ever met. He told how he had enjoyed the "stroll" and was so glad we had prosecuted the search until we had found the—tablet.

I trust when the honorable gentleman who wanted to know all about it reads this he will be satisfied with my effort and the description of its failure.

We didn't find Rosa Bonheur in the same way. We were warned that if she were in mood she might set the dog on us. She goes into the galleries in her man's suit of clothes, the gruffest and most impatient of them all if she is hindered. The kind clerk at Minister Reid's parlors told us he knew just one man in Paris who could gain entrance to the Bonheur studio for strangers and he would see him for us if he could. He took our names and we are expecting a letter from him every day!

An artist at the "Grand Hotel De La Haute Loire" told us of an American gentleman who managed to get into her reception room and who insisted upon showing her his letters of introduction from James G. Blaine, ex-Chinese Minister Blair and Madame Somebody, way up in the French clique in diplomatic circles in Washington. Bonheur didn't understand his American persistency, and bumptiousness and coolly ordered her servant to put him out!

We gave up the visit, and when you read "glimpses of the interior of Rosa Bonheur's studio and how the charming artist came down to chat with your 'correspondent' robed in crimson velvet en traine," etc., just you reach for the salt.

Did you ever see two French folk kiss? Men kiss each other on the street as women do here. They place their hands affectionately each on the other's shoulder, and each kisses the others cheeks alternately. It's quite an impressive exercise. (Safer than lip kissing, perhaps, since that wretched scientist has discovered 16 different species of bacteria in the human mouth and teeth. Ugh! what did he do it for?)

And now I break the record of my wanderings, telling you my "story of Brittany" another time, because it was decided soon after my return to Paris to start for our sailing port and embark on our homeward journey. Once you settle on a day for departure, the little flutter of excitement and anticipation; the "last places" to go and the "last things" to do; the delight of the thought of "home again" and the joy of soon putting your feet on native soil—these, in enjoyable confusion take possession of you and everything else pales into secondary lustre.

Pere and Mere Romain, Alexander the garcon, and John, and Annette and pretty Louise and big brown Caesar all followed us to the cab with love messages, promises of remembrance until we should come again, and kind and effusive au revoir and bon voyage and French kisses. I looked up to the lace curtains swaying in the gentle breezes out my wide open window and said a mute good-bye to room 8 where I had dreamed and feasted and studied the dictionary and where was mute reminder of me and my bottle of seltzer on the tinted ceiling.

Boulevard Raspail is trodden by a good many Americans, but no one of the lot ever wore away so threadbare a pair of shoes as I did. In all my meditations I had to remember to keep my foot well down or the steel instep spring which had gotten through to the daylight would trip me up.

me up. No shoes in Europe which an American would choose to wear.

Our route was through Normandy picturesque, to Dieppe and across the channel and so on to London town again. We did a bit of shopping and found things quite as cheap as in Paris, but everything natty and striking has the Paris brand on it.

Because I have a whole chapter to relate of custom house experiences, I want to go back a bit and record an incident or two in connection. All preliminary talk of home-going among Americans is spiced with the pros and cons of what you can get through the customs and what not and how it is best to manage. Mr. McKinley and men who believe as he does—enough of them—feared that this country would be ruined if the "pauper" labor of foreign artists was not taxed out for good and for all. The result is that hundreds of young men and women of America are residents of foreign cities spending their money and their years there, becoming attached to France and Paris and Berlin and Florence and growing less and less to love their own country which virtually exiles them. There is a good-sized colony of American art students in the Latin quarter; they have a flourishing club, a reading room, class in the study of the French language and are building a church.

When we were making ready for a start from Paris, Mr. and Mrs. B, who had a number of canvases to take home with them, asked advice. One said go to the United States consul and make affidavit that your work is for your own studio and not for sale. The consul will listen to you and see you sign your name to the document for a few dollars and you will have no trouble. Another said, "do no such thing; I never did. I made all my affidavits in New York and had no difficulty. Mr. and Mrs. B. determined to be on the safe side so they raced over to the consulate two or three times and found nobody in. Then they went to a like dignitary in London and swore the swear and got their papers. Of this, "more anon."

We, that is all five of us, traveling together for the first time since we left the "Nevada" in Glasgow, determined to go back to our sailing port by way of Stratford-on-Avon, Warwick (call it Warrick, please, to be truly English), Leamington, Birmingham, Leeds, and so back to the main road through Manchester and Paisley where Tannahill was born and where the poet Montgomery composed his hymn-like poetry and where the once fashionable shawls are manufactured. Yours for "Home and Native Land."

BARBARA.

LET HIM CROW.

The Ohio Rooster Has Much to Rejoice Over This Year.

Ed. Bee: Away from home, I hear this morning that an election took place yesterday in New York, Massachusetts, Iowa, New Jersey, Maryland, Pennsylvania, etc., and I am most pleased to learn that they went our way. There seems, however, to be something the matter, as republicans here in this locality are doing all the rejoicing. Inquiry among them informs me that they have elected Mr. McKinley and secured the bone of contention for the Foraker and Sherman dogs to quarrel over. It strikes me, as a common, every-day quality among men, that the cause of tariff reform has secured a victory of great magnitude in the results of the elections aforesaid as a guaranty of success in 1892, and also in removing Mr. Kinley from the source of legislation where tariff laws are made. We do not find that Mr. McKinley's tariff doctrine has received any emphasis even in the high protection state of Ohio, as he is elected by figures representing the normal republican plurality that any second-rate republican would receive without anything like the effort and expense incurred by the party.

Gov. Campbell made a most gallant fight, comparatively alone, against odds never before injected into a state campaign, and he goes down with honor and distinction.

Bring out your rooster; set him on the pyramid of tariff reform made up of the states that proclaim universal liberty and let him crow long and loud.

Many congratulations from C. N. M.

RUNNING NOTES.

Everybody knows that the new Bee building has for one of its many modern conveniences a Cutler government mail chute, by which you can drop a letter "in the slot" on any floor and it goes to the large mail box in the main hall on the first floor. This is a great convenience, and one that attracts attention, as we know from a remark a lady made in explaining its operation to a friend. She said, "Why, you put your letter in the chute and it carries directly into the postoffice!" But perhaps this lady's idea is only a little in advance of reality and that soon, by means of pneumatic tubes, this may be accomplished.

Germany has in use a "telephone clock" by which charges are rated according to the actual length of time the telephone is used instead of a rental by the year. We hope this will be introduced here, as it would do much to break up the long conversations of "nothings" by which lines wanted for "business" are kept in use and we would once in a while succeed in "getting" a phone first time, instead of getting the usual exasperating reply from central, "They're busy now."

Some of Toledo's men and women of '91 who were boys and girls in the High school class of '79 will remember the big, good-natured, bashful fellow who sat in the far corner next to the hall door on the boys' side—Hazzard Wells. What a deacon he was! and full of original and sometimes quaint ideas. He had a talent for drawing then, and the journalistic idea was budding, too, for he published a school paper, the "Gazetteer," I thik it was. In his case the tree was inclined as the twig was bent, for Mr. Wells is now a successful newspaper correspondent and has been to Alaska to write up the country for New York illustrated papers. He resides in Ludlow, Ky., where he has a pleasant home, an accomplished wife and two children.

Let the Matter Drop, Please.

The Toledo Bee and Tiffin Advertiser are invited to look over the Hamilton county returns on another page of this paper for that "plurality of 3,000 at least for Gov. Campbell" which they have been assuring their readers for the past few weeks was a sure thing. When you find it please publish the exact figures.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Dr. J. W. Bergen, Petersburg, Ind.:

DEAR SIR—I have been afflicted with asthma over sixty years, and have tried everything for it and for over nine months I had two doctors waiting on me, and they both gave me up to die. I commenced taking Dr. J. W. Bergen's Asthma Cure, and have taken three bottles of it and I am better than I have been for fifty years. I am able to do my own work, and can give the medicine great praise, and wish every one who is afflicted with that awful disease would give it a trial. Yours truly,

THE INKSTAND BATTLE.

We are making smokeless powder
And big bombs to throw a mile.
That will blow the foe to chowder
In the true dynamic style.
Talk not of the bloody red man,
And the foe his arrow drops—
Every ball, it means a dead man,
Every bullet means a corpse!

We've a whirling gun; you spin it
And the myriad bullets fly,
And a hundred men a minute
Roll their stony eyes and die.
"Make your swath of dead men deeper,"
Thus the modern Spirit saith.
"Start me up this rattling reaper
On the harvest fields of death."

Let us stop this wild death's revel;
Martin Luther, so 'tis said,
Threw his inkstand at the devil,
And the black fiend turned and fled.
Smite your world-wrong; don't combat it
With a fusilade of lead;
Simply throw your inkstand at it;
Come to-morrow: It is dead.

When the world upon the brink stands
Of some crisis steep and dread,
Like brave soldiers seize your inkstands,
Hurl them at the devil's head.
Pour your ink-pots in a torrent
Till the strangling demon sink,
Till the struggling fiend abhorrent
Drown in oceans of black ink.

For the man who's born a fighter,
For the brain that's learned to think,
There is dynamite and nitre
In a bottle of black ink.
Though it makes no weeping nations,
And it leaves no gaping scars,
Placed 'neath Error's strong foundations,
'Twill explode them to the stars.

The water does not differ in color from any other place, but when a bottle is filled and corked it soon turns very dark, almost inky in hue. A heavy dark sediment also settles to the bottom, which amounts in an ordinary quart to two inches in depth.

TOLEDO SUFFRAGE SOCIETY.

An Interesting Report on the Police Matron Business.

Can the Duties of This Office Be Evaded or Transferred to a Man?—Other Business Transacted.

The regular monthly meeting of the Toledo Suffrage society was held in Fort Industry block yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Rosa L. Segur presiding, Mrs. Ellen J. Barker secretary. There was a very large attendance and the ladies present manifested deep interest in the business before the meeting, particularly in the report of the police matron visiting committee.

Mrs. Segur announced that the executive board of the Ohio Suffrage association would meet at her house next week, Friday and Saturday, to decide upon the winter's program of legislative work. A reception will perhaps be tendered the ladies, in which case notice will be given to the members of the suffrage society and others interested through the press.

Some interesting correspondence was read, after which Mrs. Ellen S. Fray, suffrage organizer for this congressional district, reported the organization of the Political Equality club of this city and a suffrage society at Bowling Green. Also that consultation with county presidents of the W. C. T. U. attending the late convention showed that women all through this district were ready to organize for suffrage.

An order was drawn upon the treasury for money to pay the state dues for the Toledo association.

Mrs. R. L. Segur and Mrs. Sarah E. Bissell, committee on police matron, reported visiting Matron Stebbins, and finding that she and her husband, the engineer at the station, had moved their household effects into the matron's room and an adjoining room which Chief O'Dwyer had given them use of, and had there set up housekeeping. Matron Stebbins lightens her duties by having the engineer, her husband, visit the cells of drunken women for her, carry the meals of children and women confined on the third floor to them, etc. If it ever happens to be necessary for her to go to the cells or the court-room in the interest of a woman or a child, the engineer will notify her; otherwise she will be spared the necessity of going up and down the stairs. With her duties thus lightened Matron Stebbins expects to hold her position, as she would not otherwise be able to do. The committee was courteously received, and Mrs. Stebbins will be glad to see representatives from any of the women's organizations.

On motion a committee was appointed to write Mayor Emmick in the name of the society, protesting against the matron's room being so occupied at night that she could not take children or young girls into her keeping there; also to protest against the police engineer or any other police official than the matron performing the duties of the matron. The committee consists of Mesdames Rosa L. Segur, Sarah E. Bissell and A. P. Stevens.

The committee appointed to visit the matron for November is Mesdames Collins, Grah and Napier.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the society.

Whereas, The Toledo Suffrage society was actively interested in the creation of the office of police matron in Toledo; and

Whereas, Matron Coates during her three years incumbency of the office was visited monthly by a committee from this society, and was found constantly and faithfully performing her duties for which she was appointed; and

Whereas, She has now been removed from office;

Resolved, That the Toledo Suffrage society endorses the administration of Matron Coates, as having been in every way in the interests of good order, decency and the public welfare.

That part of the United States constitution relative to copyrights and patent rights was read.

Interesting reports were read by Mrs. S. R. L. Williams on the suffrage movement in this country, and Mrs. Ellen S. Fray on the the movement in other countries.

Mrs. C. Q. Murphy announced that the first issue would appear early this month of a weekly eight-page paper, "The Woman's Recorder," devoted expressly and exclusively to woman's suffrage and industrial and economical conditions affecting woman.

The next meeting will be held the first Wednesday in December.

FIGHTING DISEASE.

The Health Department's War on Diphtheria.

The Police Board Take a Hand and Decide that Quack Doctors and the City Pound Must Go.

The police board met last evening and held a most important session, the health of the city being the principal topic of discussion. Health Officer Fisher reported 60 cases of diphtheria for the month of October and 14 deaths from the disease. The health department and sanitary force, he said, were taking every precaution against the spread of the disease, but they do not receive the co-operation of people where the disease exists and are otherwise handicapped. The doctor also spoke of a number of quack doctors who practice upon the credulous and do more harm than good. There are several of these pretended physicians who are not graduates of medical colleges and know nothing of medicine. They have taken cases of diphtheria and not only were unable to properly care for them but they assisted in spreading the disease from house to house. The force also has great difficulty in regulating diphtheria funerals.

The board was of the unanimous opinion that every precaution should be taken and decided that these quacks should be examined by the health officer and if they are not qualified physicians they shall be required to stop practicing or be arrested.

Commissioner Kruse brought up the matter of the city pound, located at the corner of Western avenue and Canal street. This is in a most filthy condition and is a bad breeder of disease.

The board and Dr. Fisher were united on this question and after a discussion as to ways and means decided that the pound should go. They declared it a nuisance and ordered it removed.

It was also decided to prosecute people who throw slops and garbage in the alleys.

Chief of Police O'Dwyer's report was read, showing 416 arrests for the month and the force in good condition. The pay roll and a schedule of bills were ordered paid.

HE WAS HUNGRY.

"Mary," said Mrs. Hicks to the new waitress, "what has become of those red wine glasses?"

"Oh, mum," replied Mary with a frightened sob, "the cook's cousin was here Sunday, and he ate 'em all up. He's the glass eater at the museum, mum."—Epoch.

MARYLAND'S VOTE,

Showing Democratic Gains on All Sides.

The Blanket Ballot Caused a Vast Amount of Delay—Much Cutting Done.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 5.—The blanket ballot and a great deal of cutting in many counties make it impossible to give complete returns. The democratic ticket received increased majorities in 15 counties of the state. The plurality of the state democratic ticket is over 15,000. In this city the entire democrtic ticket was elected except two councilmen. Brown, for governor, has 17,445 plurality in the city; Poe, attorney-general, 13,726; Latrobe, mayor, has 8,039 majority; Kerr, states attorney, 9,016. The democrats also carry the first legislative district by 5,223; the second by 4,610, and the third by 2,900. The democrats carry all the wards in the city for council, with the exception of the eleventh, where Cummings, the colored councilman, is re-elected.

J. Frank Supplee is the only republican elected to the second branch. The democrats were as successful in the state as in the city. They carried the following counties: Anne, Arundel, Baltimore, Harford, Howard, Kent, Montgomery, Prince George, Caroline, Carroll, Cecil, Charles, Dorchester, Queen Anne, Talbot, Washington, Wicomico, Somerset and Worcester. The republicans carried Garrett and Allegany. Those in doubt are Calvert, St. Mary's and Frederick.

In some of these counties there was a split on the local ticket, here and there one or more candidates of the republicans were elected, but the democratic ticket as a whole was successful.

The legislature will be overwhelmingly democratic. In the last senate there were 18 democrats and 8 republicans, and in the house 59 democrats and 32 republicans.

In the next senate there will be four and perhaps five republicans and in the house about 12, giving the democrats a majority on joint ballot of 85.

The official count may change this result somewhat. The amendments to the constitution are in doubt. Very little interest was manifested in them in the counties.

POLIGAMY IN UTAH.

The Plural Marriage System Practically at an End.

There are probably 150,000 Mormons in this territory; but of that number many are only nominally so. Amid the contentions between them and the gentiles, many have sided with the church in which are their parents, relatives and friends, without embracing its faith. It is idle now to think of disfranchising the Latter Day Saints. They are an industrious, temperate people, as a rule; and my observation has led me to believe that they are law-abiding since the church took its stand under the law against plural marriage. I am aware that now and then individuals will report violations of that law since the manifesto; but upon investigation such charges are seldom sustained. It would be strange if there were no breaches of it; there are some such cases among non-Mormons. I do not believe that such marriages have been authorized or sanctioned by the officers of the Mormon church since the manifesto.—November Forum.

INJURED BY A CAVE-IN.

Excited Italians Mob the Foreman.

They Leave Their Unfortunate Countryman Under the Dirt and Chase the Boss Up the Street.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 5.—While a gang of Italians were at work digging an excavation at Fulton and Living streets, the earth suddenly caved in, partially burying several of the laborers. They were all under the direction of Foreman McManus.

As soon as the Italians who escaped injury got out of the hole, they set upon McManus, whom they charged with being the author of the accident.

They chased him several blocks with their picks and shovels and would have killed him but for the opportune arrival of several policemen.

Their fellow workmen had to be dug out by the firemen while the infuriated Italians who had tried to mob McManus looked on. Several of the unfortunates were badly injured, while two, Michael McGrath and Jones Julio were probably fatally injured.

CONFLICT OF AUTHORITY.

The War All Taken Out of the Situation.

The United States Had No Right to Seize the Vessel and Will Now Pay for Her Experience.

Washington, Nov. 4.—In regard to the decision in the Itata case, the attorney general has a dispatch from the United States attorney at Los Angeles in which it is said: "The court in an elaborate written opinion has just decided that the purchase and shipment of arms on the Itata was a legitimate commercial transaction, and that the insurgents were not a state, colony, district or people within section 5283."

This is surprising in view of the fact that Judge Brown of the southern district of New York, in the case of the Mary N. Hogan (18 fed. rep. p. 529) and Judge Hughes of the eastern district of Virginia, in the case of the United States against 214 boxes of arms (20 fed. rep. p. 50), have recently decided exactly the reverse. An appeal has been ordered.

NOT FOR PROTECTION

Does Hon. W. D. Hill Regard the Ohio Victory.

Who McKinley ... to Thank for His Election—Several ... Interesting Talk With the Ex-Congressman.

Hon. W. D. Hill, of Defiance, is in the city to-day, and like most democrats, is just recovering from the late cyclone in Ohio. He ascribes Gov. Campbell's defeat directly to dissensions in the democratic ranks and to the proneness on the part of democrats to wander away from the issues after strange gods.

"The result in Ohio is in no sense a victory for the policy of protection," said Mr. Hill. "Had all the votes cast against protection been counted for Campbell he would have been elected. The people's party was pronounced against the McKinley bill and could the tariff reform vote have been crystalized the Ohio democracy must have been triumphant. McKinley may thank democrats who strayed away from the party, and the feuds within it for his success. The fact that New York, Massachusetts and Iowa went democratic is proof enough that the cause of tariff reform must eventually win."

"What will be the effect of Tuesday's elections on the persidential campaign next year?"

"The effect will be very pronounced. The issue will be lower taxation, against protection and the more popular cause of lower taxes. If Grover Cleveland will accept the nomination he can have it by acclamation, and he will be triumphantly elected. Some western man, like Boies, of Iowa, Peck, of Wisconsin, or possibly an Indiana man will be put on for vice president. There is one thing, however, that the democratic party must do if it would hope to win. It must make the fight on the issue of tariff reform alone."

"Do you think the free coinage plank had anything to do with democratic defeat in Ohio?"

"Most certainly it had. The adoption of that plank gave McKinley a splendid chance to dodge, and he did dodge most successfully. I blame that plank on certain young democratic congressmen who ought to have known better. Young congressmen are young bumble bees, they make the most noise when they are born. Free coinage at any rate should be confined to the American product, but at any rate no chance should have been given to the republican candidate to dodge. In his opening speech at Niles he devoted most of his speech to the silver question, and he kept it up through the campaign. Then again, Gov. Campbell was nominated on that free coinage plank when he was known to be an anti-free coinage man. The blunder was a dear one, for it cost us the state."

"Who will the republicans nominate for president?"

"Harrison. Blaine could have it if he desired, but he could not afford to antagonize the Harrisonian wing of the party. Whoever is nominated will be beaten by Grover Cleveland."

"What do you think of the Sherman-Foraker fight?"

"I sincerely trust the republicans of Ohio will not make the mistake of retiring John Sherman. He is a man for whom I have the most profound respect, and his retirement would be in the nature of a public calamity. His view on all financial questions are sound and I would rather take his judgment than any other republican in the nation. He is one of the ablest men in the country, and barring his politics Ohio ought to be proud of him."

In speaking of the next general assembly of Ohio, Mr. Hill evinced the belief that but few democratic congressmen would be left. He thinks Lucas, Wood, Henry, and probably Fulton will be placed together.

SOME SPICY CURRENT TOPICS

Of Local and Neighborhood Interest.

Notes and Comments on Incidents Occurring Daily—Prepared for Readers Who are Hustled for Time.

A GOOD SELECTION.

Mr. S. C. Garver and wife, of Fremont, O., spent the Sabbath in the city, the guests of S. A. Court, Sixteenth street. Before returning on Monday they made a selection of a very fine Conover piano at the warerooms of J. W. Greene & Co., Pythian Castle.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

The superintendent of the American Sunday school union for three states, Rev. C. N. Pond, has just returned to the city. He reports that last year 63,201 pupils were brought under instruction by that society in all parts of the country, nearly one-half of whom were in the south.

THE CHAMPION WRESTLER.

J. C. Comstock, champion wrestler of the Pacific coast, is in the city to-day en route east. He will remain in Toledo a few days and would like to get up a little match. If there is any young hustler who would like to go Comstock a round or two he can be accommodated by sending his name and address to the Bee office.

DR. FISHER'S BIRTHDAY.

After the police board meeting last evening Dr. Fisher, the health officer, announced that it was his fifty-sixth birthday, and as he desired to celebrate the event he invited the board, Chief O'Dwyer, Secretary Berney and the members of the press to a supper which was served near by. The affair was a very pleasant one, and all united in wishing Dr. Fisher many years more of health and happiness.

IN JUDGE PUGSLEY'S COURT.

The case of Joseph W. Cummings against Theophilus Brown is on hearing in Judge Pugsley's room to-day. It is an action to recover on a promissory note made in 1876 by John L. McCloud and endorsed by Brown, the defendant. The case of Henry Crawford against the Toledo Consolidated Street Railway company was dismissed for want of prosecution.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES.

This is to be a big week for council committees and they will present a large amount of important business to the board next Monday. Committees on streets, sewers and harbor and commerce will meet to-night. To-morrow evening the committee on railroads will meet and take another turn at the general street railway ordinance and on Saturday afternoon the special committee on annexation will meet.

BURGLAR CAUGHT.

The residence of J. Erwin, First street, East Toledo, was entered last night and some clothes, a revolver and other articles stolen. Later in the night Patrolmen Herman and Epker arrested a man for doing the job and recovered the goods. He gave his name as J. J. O'Malley and claimed to hail from Scranton, Pa. After a hearing in police court he was bound over to the common pleas court, with bail fixed at $500.

AT THE OLD LADIES' HOME.

The board of managers of this institution were in session this morning attending to routine business and reckoning up the proceeds of yesterday's donations. While these contributions do not aggregrate so much as they have done in some previous years, they will materially help in carrying on the work of this beneficent institution, and the ladies are well pleased that the Home was remembered by so many yesterday. Of course all who did not get around with their remembrances yesterday can send their contributions in at any time. It is never too late to do good. The next regular session of the board will be on Thursday morning, November 19.

AN OLD BEE.

Mr. Thomas Card, 1715 Madison street, brought to the Bee this morning a copy of an old issue of the Bee printed Dec. 18, 1876, about fifteen years ago, when the Bee was less than a year old. It is a small sheet, five columns wide and only 12 by 16 inches in size. Mr. Card's son, Harry B. Card, carried a Bee route at that time, and is now a prosperous man in Wyoming territory, where he owns a large cattle ranch. One of the principal items of local interest this old copy contained was the funeral notice of Miss Kittie Forbes. The little copy of the Bee, when compared with one of the large eight-page issues now printed every day has a very diminutive appearance.

THE PENNSYLVANIA STEAL.

Harrisburg, Nov. 5.—Ex-Deputy Attorney Gen. Gilbert took up the morning session of the senate in defense of State Treasurer Boyer. He criticised Gov. Pattison's statements as unfair and exaggerated and contended that the state could not lose over $87,000 by Bardsley's operations, whereas the governor fixed the sum at over $1,300,000. Mr. Gilbert argued that there was no evidence of Boyer's connection with Bardsley's irregularities.

Jolly Elected.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 5.—The latest returns show Jolly (rep.) is elected to congress by a plurality of about 2,000.

MRS. SHERWOOD'S READINGS.

At the solicitation of a number of ladies interested, Mrs. John Sherwood has been secured for two readings, which will be given at Whitney & Currier's music hall on the evenings of November 9 and 12. The subjects will be "Five Seasons in London" and "Visits in Spain." Tickets may be obtained of Mrs. J. B. Ketcham at the Boody house.

The Hoboken Turtle club is in the hands of the sheriff; and the voice of that turtle shall be heard no more in the land.

STORY OF FREDERICK THE GREAT.

A sergeant of the life-guards, very vain, but possessed of much bravery, wore a watch-chain to which he had fastened a musket-ball, being too poor to buy a watch. The king, having heard of this, wished to expose him to ridicule. Stepping up to the soldier, he said:

"Sergeant, you must have been economical; I see you wear a watch; mine tells me it is 5 o'clock; how much is yours?"

The soldier, guessing the intention of the king, but nothing daunted, immediately drew forth the ball, saying:

"Your majesty, my watch is neither 5 nor 6 o'clock, but it tells me, as often as I look at it, that I must be ever ready to die for your majesty."

"Here, my friend," added the king, much moved, "take this, to know the precise hour also in which to die for me," at the same time giving him his own pocket timepiece, studded with jewels.

INDIAN RAIN MAKERS.

The Indian method of rain making differs materially from that of either Dryenforth or Melbourne. Their idea is to propitiate the goddess to whose malignity the dearth of rain is attributed by Hindoo superstition. To effectively do this the barbarous practice of "hook-swinging" has been revived. Iron hooks are thrust through the muscles of a man's back, ropes are fastened to the hooks, by which the fanatic is hoisted into the air to the end of a cross-yard, and he is violently swung round and round, his agonies being regarded as a votive offering of propitiation to the offended deity. The victim is always a consenting party to this barbarous ceremony.—Philadelphia Ledger.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE MILLIONS OF CONSUMERS OF Tutt's Pills.

It gives Dr. Tutt pleasure to announce that he is now putting up a TINY LIVER PILL which is of exceedingly small size, yet retaining all the virtues of the larger ones. They are guaranteed purely vegetable. Both sizes of these pills are still issued. The exact size of TUTT'S TINY LIVER PILLS is shown in the border of this "ad."

CROUPY SOUNDS

At night, from baby's crib, are distracting to parents who are at a loss for a medicine equal to the emergency. Not so with those who have Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. A dose of this medicine affords certain and speedy relief. To cure colds, coughs, sore throat, asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, and the various disorders of the breathing apparatus, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has no equal. It soothes the inflamed tissue, promotes expectoration, and induces repose. Cap. U. Carley, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for thirty years and have always found it the best remedy for croup, to which complaint my children were subject."

ROOM 3, PRODUCE EXCHANGE.

IT MAY BE

That you prefer to pay rent for your house than to own one of your own. It may be that you have never taken the time or trouble to figure up what you pay out in rent and how quickly it would pay for a home. Perhaps you don't know how easy it is to become the proud possessor of the "dearest spot on earth." Perhaps you think you must pay all cash when you would buy a home, and if you could not afford to do that you must grovel, and sweat and dig to lift a burden of a mortgage. These are but suggestions. It may be that you do know it is more pleasureable, profitable and comfortable to live in your own home than in some other person's. It may be that you thought about it and come to the conclusion that you do pay out a great deal of rent, and that it does not take very long to pay for a new house at the same rate. It is quite likely that you know a mortgage is perfectly healthy, and that a house with a mortgage is better than no house at all, and that a mortgage is not a burden at all, but in fact a help. Perhaps the only thing you are not positive about is where to build a home, and it is right here we are of assistance.

ENGLEWOOD, THE HOME CENTER,

Has the advantage of sewer, water, gas and pavement, street cars, etc., etc. In the direct line of growth of the city it has many beautiful homes. And many more will be finished before spring. Plats and prices at our office. You make the terms.

POMEROY'S LAGRANGE ADDITION!

THIS ADDITION—very centrally located—on Lagrange street, eleven minutes' ride from the postoffice by electric car. It has been held in an estate for many years and now is just platted to settle the same. It is as level as a floor and not a dollar is needed for grading.

THE NEIGHBORHOOD is excellent, being directly adjacent to the Protestant Orphans' Home and the new St. Hebard's Church. We offer lots at $300.00 each on terms to suit the purchaser, and will reserve the right to advance the price at any time. They will quickly double in value, and no better investment of savings can be made than in these lots.

TITLE is perfect and we furnish each buyer with an abstract. Lagrange street is paved and sewered and these lots derive all the benefits from these improvements. We shall be glad to show this property at any time and give further particulars. ☞ Plat can be found at our office.

Wheat Quotations for the Day—Price Current for Produce and Other Articles.

London wheat market firmer, held higher; Corn firm. Country markets generally dearer. Weather seasonable. Liverpool wheat 1-2 to one penny dearer. Corn firm 1-2 pence up.

The receipts of wheat at seven principal western points to-day are 2,407,308 bus., compared with 447,649 bus. on the same day last year.

California Wheat Movement.—The receipts at San Francisco in the week ending Oct. 28th equaled 503,161 bus. of wheat and 41,828 bbls. of flour. The exports equaled 407,360 bus. of wheat and 8,889 bbls. of flour.

Steamers Engaged to Export Grain.—The Philadelphia Record states that the steamers engaged to carry grain of all kinds from the Atlantic ports from October 31 to February 28 are 163, with an aggregate capacity for 19,956,000 bu. In addition to this large quantity of grain that will go abroad in full cargoes, there have been engagements of berth freight room for future clearance from the various Atlantic ports aggregating 11,750,000 bu. It will be seen, therefore, that the total advance freight engagements now provide for the exportation of a grand total of 31,706,000 bu.

Comment.—This is an average for 79 days of 4,000,000 bu of wheat, corn oats, rye, and barley dailey, and it looks like "painting the lily."

The receipts of wheat to-day at seven principal western points are 1,959,659 in excess of the corresponding Thursday in 1890, but in this calculation are two days receipts at Duluth and Minneapolis.

The export clearances yesterday from four Atlantic ports were 228,354 bu of wheat and flour to an aggregate of 370,000 bu of wheat. The export of corn was 238,555 bu.

English markets as reported herein are strong and higher for both wheat and corn.

The continuance of dry weather—the advancing foreign markets—and increased exportation all contribute their influence in giving strength to the wheat markets on this side, and prices are higher. New York telegraphs that 60 loads of wheat, 480,000 bu were sold there yesterday for export, and 34 loads of corn, 272,000 bu. There has been considerable said about exporting oats, but the movement does not materialize yet.

Notwithstanding the large receipts, the weather continues to hold wheat in a strong position. Some of the large shorts in the larger markets are adding to their short sales to-day trusting to a change of weather conditions. If we get sufficient rain, without a freeze after it, the markets will be sharply attacked by the bears, and although western wheat is worth all it is selling for for export, we presume that fact will not be taken into account much, in the contingency we refer to.

Private cables make Berlin close about 2c, and Paris 1c to 1 1-2c bus. higher.

The corn market is quite as strong as wheat, and has advanced in proportion east and west. The prohibition of exports of all the coarser cereals from Russia, is destined to exercise a large influence on our corn market. It will be a glorious thing for this country, in one respect, if on this full crop of corn we can maintain 25 to 30 per cent. above the price on the last large crop. We say in one respect, and that means agriculture. We consume an average of 1,700,000,000 bus. of it in this country, and to a portion of these consumers the advance will not prove so acceptable, but if the consumers will economize in the use of the corn juice they will not feel the cost of the grain.

The markets for wheat in this country have been firm all day, and, with some irregularity, have maintained nearly 1c higher prices, but near the close the markets east lost part of the gain, and Chicago all of it.

Corn closed strong.

In New York November wheat closed 1-2c and December 1-2c higher. November corn 2 1-4c and December 2 1-4c higher. November oats 3-8c higher.

In Chicago December wheat closed at a loss of 1-8c. November corn 5-8c higher. November oats 1-4c higher.

In Toledo the trading in wheat futures has been lighter than usual. Prices have not advanced in the ratio of other markets, but the market has been firm. December at one time was 5-8c up, but closed 1-8c above yesterday. May closed 1-2c up. On the call November wheat sold at 98c; December at 99 1-4c to 99 3-8c, and May at $1 05 3-4 to $1 05 1-2c. After the call December sold at 99 3-8c to 99 7-8c and closed at 99 1-2c. May sold at $1 05 1-2 to $1 06 1-4 and closed at $106, asked.

Cash wheat was in moderate demand and closed 1-2c higher. No. 2 soft sold at 97 1-2c to 98c, and again at 97 1-2c. At the close 98c was asked. No. 3 soft, 95c to 94 1-2c. No. 4 soft at 89c. Rejected No. 1 at 88c to 91c. No. 2 at 79c to 80c. White at 70c. No. 2 red and white at 95 1-2c to 96c. No. 2 hard at 95c. No. 3 at 89c. No. 1 white at 94c. No. 2 at 93c to 94c.

Corn.—On the call January sold at 45c. After the call No. 2 at 58c. No. 2 yellow, 58 1-2c. January at 45c. No 3 at 45c. No 4 at 43c.

Oats.—No. 2 about 32c. No. 3 white, 31 3-4c. Rejected, 28c.

Rye.—No. 2, 92c cash and to arrive.

Clover seed very quiet and steady. Prime for cash at $4.55. No. 2 at $4.30 to $4.35.

The stock market was a little more active this morning. The opening was weak and the first prices were in many cases below those of yesterday. In the early dealings there was a further weakening of values. Del & Hud and Nor Pac pfd were the most active and at the same time weakest stocks. Del & Hud declined 3 per cent to 1 25, while Nor Pac fell 1 1-8 to 72. Other stocks, especially the coal stocks and grangers, lost fractionally. This was notably the case with Rock Island, Wabash pfd, Lackawanna, Burlington and Union Pacific, Atchison, St. Paul, Rock Island and Chicago gas. Toward 11 o'clock prices rallied somewhat, on a small covering.

Trading was very narrow in the hour to noon, and aside from some selling of Lackawanna presented no feature of interest. By noon its price had declined 2 1-8 per cent to 1 37 5-8. The others made very few changes. At this writing the market is dull at a slight improvement over yesterday's prices. The sales amounted to 151,300 shares.

Legal Notice.

David A. Fuller and Susan M. Fuller, his wife, whose place of residence is unknown, will take notice that on the 4th day of November, 1891, Geo. Schuler filed in the common pleas court of Lucas county, Ohio, his petition in which in substance he avers that the said defendant, David A. Fuller, is indebted to said plaintiff, Geo. Schuler, in the sum of $145.00, with interest on $275 from April 14, 1876, at eight per cent. to Feb. 29, 1884, and from that date interest on $145.00 at eight per cent. And further that to secure payment of said indebtedness on that date said defendants made, executed and delivered to said plaintiff a certain mortgage deed conveying to said plaintiff lots 4 and 6 in block 7 of the plat of North Toledo, Lucas county, Ohio. That the prayer of said petition is for judgment against said defendant, David Fuller, for the amount due to said plaintiff, and in default of payment thereof within a short time to be fixed by the court, that said premises may be sold to pay said debt, with interest and costs and taxes thereon according to their priority of lien.

Defendant is required to answer said petition on or before the 12th day of December, 1891, or a judgment and decree may be taken as prayed for against him.

The Helping Hand.

DR. GREENE'S NERVURA.

(Guaranteed Purely Vegetable and Harmless.)

THE GREAT STRENGTH RESTORER.

A Sure and Positive Cure

For Nervousness, Weakness and Debility, Nervous Debility, Weak and Shattered Nerves, Tired Feeling, Sleeplessness, Poor Blood, Heart Failure, Headache, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Despondency, &c.

The Great Nerve, Brain and Blood Invigorant.

DR. GREENE'S NERVURA is the most successful remedy ever discovered. Its sales are simply enormous. It cures more cases of disease than any other known medicine, and has saved thousands upon thousands from Paralysis, Insanity, Nervous Prostration, Heart Failure, Physical Exhaustion or Death. It is beyond all question the greatest health restorer in existence.

Use this wonderful remedy if you wish to get well, for it is a sure and positive cure. For sale by all druggists; price $1.00 per bottle. Refuse all substitutes.

Is This How You Feel?

If you are weak, tired and nervous, with lifeless feeling and no ambition to work, it will restore your strength, vigor and energies. If you are sleepless and wake tired mornings, with dull head, bad taste in the mouth, no appetite, depression of mind and extreme nervousness, it will clear your head, tone up your nerves, invigorate your blood and put vim and life into you.

Dr. Greene, the famous lecturer and specialist in the cure of nervous and chronic diseases, can be consulted free at his office, 35 West 14th St., New York, personally or by letter.

City Auditor's Office.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 7, 1891.

THE COMMITEE ON WAYS AND MEANS of the Common Council of the City of Toledo, Ohio, and the undersigned invite sealed proposals at this office to

at 7 o'clock p m. for the purchase of general fund refunding bonds of the city of Toledo to the amount of ninety-two thousand ($92,000) dollars, bearing date October 1, 1891, and payable ten (10) years after date at the Importers' and Traders' National bank, in the city of New York, with interest at the rate of five (5) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually at the same place, to be evidenced by coupons to be attached to said bonds.

Said bonds are issued under and by the authority of section 2701 of the revised statutes of Ohio and an ordinance of the common council of Toledo, passed September 28, A D 1891, which provides for issue of said bonds

The denomination of these bonds $1,000.

The said bonds will be sold at not less than par and accrued interest, to the highest bidder.

Bidders will be required to state the gross amount they will pay for the Bonds besides the accrued interest to date of delivery at Toledo, Ohio. They will also be required to deposit with each bid an amount of money or a certified check on some responsible bank equal to at least five (5) per centum of the par value of the Bonds so bid for as a guarantee of good faith, and that the bid so made (if successful) will be fulfilled in accordance with the terms thereof, and the requirements of the law and ordinances. When the bids have been examined and the award made according to law, all moneys or checks deposited as guarantees shall be returned to the depositor, or held by the City Auditor subject to his call, except that of the successful bidder, which shall be held and considered and accepted as part payment of the Bonds so awarded or sold, but should there be any repudiation of the contract or agreement, or refusal to accept and pay for the Bonds so sold, then and in that case the deposit shall be forfeited to the City of Toledo, and shall become the property of said city in compensation for loss and expenses attending the sale of said bonds and as liquidated damages for repudiation of bid. And no bid will be received if not accompanied by money or check aforesaid.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Proposals should be addressed to the "Auditor of the City of Toledo, Ohio," and be indorsed "Proposals for General Fund Refunding Bonds." W. T. WALKER, City Auditor.
